Veteran Foreign Service Officer Enters General Denial of Charges Made By McCarthy

AT A PUBLIC HEARING

Washington, June 22—(P)—Career Diplomat John S. Service, accused by Senator McCarthy of aiding Chinese Communists, declared today that on the contrary he had done all he could to resist "the domination of China by Communists."

The veteran foreign service officer was before a public session of the senate foreign relations subcommittee which is investigating the contents of McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, that the State Department harbors Communists and Red sympathizers.

The senators had first planned to hear him behind closed doors, but Service asked for a public hearing.

A thin, wiry man, Service leaned forward in the witness chair and told the senators it just is not true that he was a "collaborator with Communists" as McCarthy charged.

He also declared that he was "innocent of the charges" placed against him in the 1945 Amerasia secret documents case.

Before Service asked for a public hearing, Chairman Tydings (D-Md.) had insisted the questioning should be behind closed doors although Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) had urged open hearings.

Service has been a main target of McCarthy—who also wants Service heard in public—ever since the senator first accused the state department of harboring Communists. (Turn to Page Twenty)

IUE-CIO Union Wins Sylvania Elections

The IUE-CIO union won an overwhelming vote of confidence at an NLRB election for approximately 300 employees of Sylvania plants in Warren and Clarendon yesterday.

The unofficial vote tally for the two plants showed:

IUE-CIO Union—206.

UE Union (Independent)—78.

No union—14.

However, in a similar NLRB election for employees of the Sylvania plant at Emporium, the UE won out over the IUE in close balloting. The unofficial count showed:

UE—787.

IUE-CIO—660.

No union—29.

The official count for both elections will be announced within a few days by the NLRB.

The elections climaxed a hot campaign between the rival unions for bargaining rights at the Sylvania plants. The UE union was thrown out of the CIO organization at a recent national convention. The CIO then formed the IUE.

Controversy Over Video In Taprooms Heads For Decision In Supreme Court

Harrisburg, June 22—(P)—The Liquor Control Board's claim for $250,000 to $500,000 in delinquent amusement taxes from taprooms operating television sets headed for the U. S. supreme court today. In another step in a three year controversy the state supreme court yesterday ordered the board to stop attempting to collect the tax to give liquor dealers a chance

Chief Executive Predicts Election Of Democratic Senator In Ohio This Fall

Washington, June 22—(P)—President Truman said today he would vote the straight Democratic ticket if he lived in Ohio. He added that he thinks Ohio without a doubt will elect a Democratic senator this fall.

Mr. Truman got into the question of Ohio politics at his news conference. He was asked about a statement by Ohio's Gov. Frank Lausche earlier this week that Lausche didn't know yet whether he would vote for Republican Senator Robert Taft or Joseph T. Ferguson, the Democratic nominee.

Lausche made the politically mystifying assertion at the annual governors conference at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. He came on here today to attend a luncheon of Democratic governors with Mr. Truman.

The president at first refused to comment on Lausche's statement. Then he was asked what he would do if he were in Ohio.

Speaking in measured terms, Mr. Truman said he would vote the straight Democratic ticket just as he always does.

In connection with the luncheon, Mr. Truman made plain that Governors J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Fielding Wright of Mississippi were not invited to attend.

Wright and Thurmond headed the states' rights ticket which opposed the regular Democratic ticket which nominated and elected Mr. Truman in 1948.

The president was asked whether the southern governors had snubbed the luncheon or whether they had not been invited.

Mr. Truman replied they were (Turn to Page Twenty)

The crash of the ornamental plaster and wire lath reinforcing came suddenly with a roar like thunder and seemingly dropped in a single sheet, said police officer William Goldsmith, who was attending the show at the time.

Another policeman, Phil Bray, said the collapse was "like an earthquake." A brief panic among patrons immediately died down.

Redwood City fire chief, Joseph Lodi said the ceiling seemed to have given away in the center and just "peeled off" to the sides. He estimated that about 10 tons of plaster and reinforcing fell.

Thirty Hurt When Ceiling Falls In Theater On Coast

Redwood City, Calif., June 22—(P)—Thirty persons were injured last night when the ceiling over the balcony of the Sequoia Theatre collapsed and showered 10 tons of ornamental plaster on moviegoers.

Fifteen were injured enough to need hospitalization, but only one was in serious condition early today. The others required only first aid.

Mrs. Vangie Case, 34, of Redwood City, was still unconscious in Palo Alto Hospital several hours after the accident. She either jumped or fell from the upstairs lounge seats in front of the balcony. She was not in the area where the plaster fell. No one was certain in the confusion which followed the crash.

The accident occurred about 15 minutes before midnight, when most of the patrons had already left.

Meanwhile, the 1949 legislature barred the board from imposing the amusement fee on liquor retailers operating television sets, but failed to grant a similar exemption to holders of beer licenses only.

Army Worms Invasion Reaches Allegheny Co.

Pittsburgh, June 22—(P)—The invasion of army worms now is reaching into Allegheny county.

That's the report today of E. J. Udine, Pennsylvania State College expert who came here to direct the battle against the little worms.

The first alarm in Allegheny county came from Gilbert Lindstrom, of Buena Vista. He said worms have moved in on his alfalfa.

Udine said the battle against the devouring army worms in Bedford and Somerset counties is going against the insects. The best weapons he said, are DDT spray on crops not consumed by animals or human beings, and the new drug chlordane for such crops as barley and other grains.

The president at first refused to comment on Lausche's statement. Then he was asked what he would do if he were in Ohio.

Speaking in measured terms, Mr. Truman said he would vote the straight Democratic ticket just as he always does.

Commission Orders Milk Prices Hiked

Harrisburg, June 22—(P)—The state milk control commission today ordered milk prices increased one cent a quart in the Harrisburg, York and Reading marketing areas, effective July 1.

Similar boosts were ordered by the commission yesterday for the Philadelphia, Philadelphia suburb and Lancaster areas.

The orders also boost the prices for producers an average of 30 cents in the six areas.

H. N. Cobb, commissioner chairman, said the price hikes were necessary to offset higher operating costs for both dealers and producers.

Dealers, for the most part, were in accord with the commission's increases, but producers at conferences here earlier this week claimed them insufficient.

WOMAN DROWNS
Pittsburgh, June 22—(P)—Mrs. Rose Megalo, 62, drowned in a creek back of her home yesterday, apparently because she was worried about her chickens. Miners going to work found the body face down in four feet of water.

A flashlight was found near the creek. Dr. W. T. Holland of Springdale, said the woman is believed to have left her home to look after her chickens during a storm.

EXECUTIVE TO RETIRE
Oil City, June 22—(P)—Maurice A. Brewster, an official and executive officer of Pennzoil Company for many years, will retire from active service July 1.

NO BREAK IN WALKOUT OF MILK DRIVERS

Pittsburgh, June 21—(P)—Mayor David L. Lawrence renewed his efforts as a peacemaker today in the milk strike which has choked off all but emergency supplies to 2,300,000 residents of western Pennsylvania.

As the strike of 3,250 AFL members rolled into its 14th day without sign of a break, Lawrence summoned union and management to his office for another try at reaching agreement on a new contract.

Lawrence, who had been hopeful a settlement was in sight, was a picture of despair after a long negotiating session broke up in his office last night. He commented wearily:

"I can only say that I hope both sides start to think of the people who are suffering from this terrible strike."

Shirt-sleeved representatives of the 67 struck dairies had no comment.

Both sides have given a little ground since the strike began over renewal of a contract to replace the one which expired last May 1.

The big issue is retroactivity. The dealers refuse to give back pay to May 1. The union insists on retroactivity to that date.

The industry is offering driver-salesmen a guarantee of $11.50 a day. They got $10 under the old contract. The union originally asked this be hiked to $13.50.

The union also demands a reduction in the 48-hour week for inside workers. It wants a 40-hour week with no loss in pay. The dealers offer a 44-hour week with no change in pay rates.

Three Are Shot In New Outbreak At Morristown, Tenn.

Morristown, Tenn., June 22—(P)—Three workers were shot in a new outbreak of violence at the strike-ridden American Enka Corporation plant near here today.

Joe Q. Dougherty, industrial relations director for Enka, said the men were shot as they attempted to cut across a field to report for work on the 7 a. m. shift today.

One of the men apparently was seriously hurt, Dougherty said. He reported William McGinnis shot in the leg and head. He is on route to a hospital and a definite report on his condition is not yet available.

The others wounded were listed as Victor McDaniel and James McCanney. Both reportedly received only flesh wounds.

McGinnis returned the fire before he was knocked down by shots fired by ambushers, Dougherty said.

The company spokesman said no law enforcement officers were on duty when the shooting occurred near the plant gates, about seven miles from here.

McGinnis leaped from his car and ran through the fields firing his gun when the shooting broke out shortly before the morning shift started today.

The wounding of McGinnis was the first serious injury reported in the 12-week-old strike which flared into violence when the company resumed operations late in May.

Widow of Suicide To Be Heard In Inquiry

Pittsburgh, June 22—(P)—City council called today for testimony from the widow of a city clerk who shot himself rather than testify in the current free work probe.

She is Mrs. Robert Laun, whose husband took his own life Saturday. Attorney Charles J. Margiotti, her counsel, said he would produce Mrs. Laun and accompany her to the hearing.

Homer Greene, director of the city department of lands and buildings, testified yesterday he could not explain the whereabouts of a quantity of missing building material because it was Laun's job to keep track of it.

City Solicitor Anne X. Alpern, who is questioning witnesses for council, has said Laun is not involved in any charges. Some city officials have been accused of using city laborers on city time to work on their privately owned summer homes.

Schedule of Events for War Memorial Field Independence Day Is Announced

Jack Barr and Ben Kinnear, co-chairmen of the parade and drum corps committee in connection with the Jaycee Fourth of July Celebration, have announced a tentative schedule of events for War Memorial Field on the afternoon of July 4th:

1:15 p. m.—IOOF Orphans Home Band of Meadville.

1:25 p. m.—Sheffield V F W Blackface Drill Team.

1:35 p. m.—Elkettes Drum and Bugle Corps of Titusville.

1:45 p. m.—Marine Corps League Junior Drill Team of Titusville.

1:55 p. m.—Canadian Legion Pipe Band of Toronto, Canada.

2:15 p. m.—Beginning of 2000 Drum and Bugle Corps Competition.

Corps from Dunkirk, N. Y., Massillon, Ohio, Ridgway, Pittsburgh, Salamanca, N. Y., Lockhaven, Erie, and Niagara Falls, N. Y., are entered in the 2,000 Drum and Bugle Corps Competition. The actual order in which these corps will appear will not be known until a short time before the contest. Lots will be drawn to determine the order of appearance.

The Elkettes Drum and Bugle Corps of Titusville is the very popular girls organization which is well known throughout this section.

The drill teams which will exhibit on the field will have the musical accompaniment of the Jamestown American Legion Drum Corps.

The admission fee for this gigantic show will be 60c for adults and 30c for students ten years of age and over. Children under ten will be admitted free of charge.

That's when the present selective service law expires.

Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois called the senators to work an hour early in an attempt to settle the issue on time. It still seemed likely that congress would be forced to pass a stop-gap bill to keep the act in effect beyond tomorrow.

The extension bill had several obstacles to hurdle before it could be sent to the White House. Among them were:

1. A promise by Senator Russell (D-Ga.) to revive and modify his proposal—brought last night on a 42 to 29 vote—to permit servicemen to join units of their own race if they so desire.

2. A Republican move to give congress "trigger control" over actual drafting or inductions, as provided in a house-passed measure. The senate bill would retain this authority in the hands of President Truman.

3. Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the house armed services committee told a reporter the house will insist on its version of the draft extender—thus raising the prospect (Turn to Page Twenty)

Jamestown Man Sells Large Share Of Stock Held In Washington Senators

Washington, June 22—(P)—Henry Gabriel (Gabe) Murphy, an insurance broker, today became 81-year-old Clark Griffith's major partner in the Washington American League baseball club, Griffith announced.

At the club's office the Senators' president said he had just received a telephone call from Murphy advising that he had bought 40.4 per cent of the club's stock from John J. Jachym of Jamestown, N. Y. The deal involves 7,851 shares which Jachym purchased only last December from the estate of William E. Richardson, formerly major stockholder with Griffith.

Jachym, a 31-year-old former marine captain, had bought the stock with the financial assistance of Hugh A. Grant, Jr., of Bradford, Pa.

The amount of cash involved in the Jachym-Murphy deal was not made public today. It was understood that Jachym had paid around $550,000 for the shares when he bought them six months ago.

Jachym said at the time that he wanted to take an active interest in affairs of the club and aspired to be general manager of the Nats. Griffith greeted that statement with coolness and with the aid of other stockholders denied Jachym a voice in the club's affairs. He did place Frederic J. Ball, Jachym's attorney here, on the board of directors.

The new part-owner of the Senators is a former graduate manager of athletics at Georgetown University.

CONTRACTING FIRMS ARE SUING UNIONS

Pittsburgh, June 22—(P)—Two contracting firms are suing a union for $132,000 damages as a result of strikes.

The union is Local 66, AFL International Union of Operating Engineers. Booth and Flinn Company asked $68,000 and Ferguson and Edmondson Company $64,000 in federal court suits.

Booth and Flinn said it suffered loss last month during construction of a boiler room for Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation at Rankin and while rebuilding coke ovens for Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation at Aliquippa.

Ferguson and Edmondson said it was damaged while installing ladle-lining facilities at the C-I plant in Rankin.

Los Angeles, June 22—(P)—A spectacular array of Hollywood stars and an army of studio electrical wizards will see that the nation's Shriners leave Los Angeles in a true blaze of glory.

A million-dollar extravaganza of lights and luminaries tonight will close the five-day conclave which drew 135,000 visitors.

The festival, sponsored by the motion picture industry, also will serve to introduce the Shrine's new imperial potentate, Hubert M. Poteat, of Wake Forest, N. C. He succeeds Harold Lloyd, Los Angeles, who will be grand marshal and master of ceremonies at tonight's closing festival.

REGULATIONS ARE EXTENDED FOR 6 MONTHS

Gives Municipalities the Option of Retaining Laws For Duration of Legislation

PENALTIES LESSENE

Washington, June 22—(P)—A bill extending federal rent controls until December 31 sped through congress late yesterday. President Truman was expected to sign it promptly.

Acting with rare speed, the house sent the bill to the senate on a 16 to 145 vote, and the senate five hours later completed congressional action by approving it, 40 to 24.

The measure, worked out in a senate-house conference, fell well short of President Truman's specifications for a one-year extension without any restrictions. However, lawmakers had no doubts that Mr. Truman would sign the bill rather than let the present curbs die on June 30.

The bill extends controls for an additional six months and also gives municipalities the option of retaining them for still another six months.

It also keeps controls on permanent accommodations in Chicago's apartment and residential hotels and gives counties the right to decontrol their unincorporated areas, a decontrol privilege previously given only to states and cities.

In contrast to the lengthy senate debate on the original bill, there was none on the conference report. Thirty Democrats and 10 Republicans lined up for it, while 18 Republicans and six southern Democrats opposed.

Earlier, the senate by a 42 to 32 vote had cleared for White House approval a bill softening one of the main penalty provisions of the Hatch clean politics act.

The bill permits a lesser penalty than outright dismissal for a federal employee found guilty of participating in political activities barred by the act. The lesser penalty can be imposed only by a unanimous vote of the Civil Service Commission and in no case less than 30 days suspension without pay.

It permits government workers living in nearby Virginia and Maryland to engage in party politics at the local level.

70 Group Air Force Opposed By Truman

Washington, June 22—(P)—President Truman said today the country can not pay for a 70 group air force.

The president made this observation at a news conference in commenting on pending legislation in congress to authorize that strength for the air arm.

Mr. Truman said it didn't make any difference how many air groups were authorized—that the question was now many the budget would allow.

Asked whether the country could pay for an Air Force that large and stay within its budget, he said the country can't pay for 70 groups.

The legislation in congress does not say that the air force should have 70 groups. It merely sets that as the ceiling for air strength.

The actual size of the Air Force, under the bill, would depend in the end on how much money congress appropriated for it.

Possibility of A Railroad Strike In July Discussed

Chicago, June 22—(P)—A possible nationwide rail tieup was foreseen today as:

(1) A switchmen's union set Sunday as a strike date against five big lines, and (2) two more unions become legally free to strike July 15.

The Rock Island and the Western Pacific said they would stop running Sunday if the switchmen left work.

Regal Sendoff Is Planned For Nation's Shriners When They Leave Los Angeles

Scott, Eddie Bracken, Roy Rogers and Dale Evans with Trigger, Virginia Mayo, William Bendix and Marta Toren will parade and perform under the glare of uncounted kilowatts in the Memorial Coliseum.

George Jessel and Bill Goodwin will be masters of ceremonies for the closing festival, to be directed by Leroy Prinz.

Flores studied with hundreds of lights will carry Cleopatra, the convention's queen, her court and various moving displays. Cleopatra is Marilyn Lindberg, Beverly Hills, Calif., chosen from nine candidates proposed by southern California Shrine clubs. Shriners carrying lighted canes will join the procession. The show will close with a burst of fireworks.

Jail On Wheels Is Inspected By Large Crowd Here Today

A jail on wheels brought to Warren as part of the promotion for a Warner Bros. picture, "Caged", to appear in the near future at the Library Theatre, was parked in Second Avenue between Liberty Street and Pennsylvania Avenue today, where it attracted many visitors.

The unit, a completely motorized six-wheel bus, arrived about nine o'clock from Titusville, where it was on view Wednesday. The crew consists of Douglas Sherman, manager of Bridgeport, Conn., and George Perry, a special officer.

The jail now is in its fourth year of a nation-wide tour in which 25 states have been visited. It is being presented by J. Edward Slavin, former sheriff of New Haven, Conn.

Capable of 60 mph, the self-propelled jail is about the size of a cross-country bus and contains crime-fighting apparatus found only in F. B. I. and police laboratories. Equipment includes all police weapons, sub-machine guns, shotguns, revolvers, gas and riot guns and gas bombs.

Also exhibited are leg-irons, handcuffs, iron-claws, bullet-proof vests, detection powder and ultraviolet equipment, complete teletype and fingerprinting apparatus, a large magnet capable of lifting 20-pound objects from under water, a real jail cell, a soundscaper and a new device for recording on small discs confessions and confidential information, also a collection of police badges.

One outstanding attraction is a genuine electric chair, an exact duplicate of the one used at Connecticut State Prison and other state prisons.

At the rear of the vehicle is a complicated-looking apparatus for measuring how drunk a person might be.

One of two buses, the tour is primarily in the interest of making people understand more fully that crime does not pay and is also a mobile crusade against juvenile delinquency.

According to Sheriff Slavin, the jail and its exhibits are designed to prove that a criminal never wins because today's police departments have too much scientific know-how to use against him.

The "jail on wheels" has facilities for radio broadcasting and a roof platform with microphone and loudspeaker attachments for lectures to gatherings en route. Inside is an amplified speaker by which the exhibits are explained to visitors.

Emblem Oil edged past Russell, 12-11, at the State Hospital diamond last night in an Industrial Softball League tilt. Bob Dixon's home run in the ninth tied the score and George Hoden iced the game for the oilers with a round tripper in the first overtime period.

In another league scrap at the West Side field, Newell Press beat Tidoute Nortons, 5-1. Buck Marshall pitched a two-hitter for the Pressmen, while Clayton Larson led the winners at the plate with three timely hits.

Batteries were Marshall and Knaus for Newell Press and Demarte and Turner for Tidoute.

Newell Press also was credited with a 10-7 win over Tidoute Mohawks on Monday night.

CELEBRATION BRIEFS

The first event in the Jaycee Fourth of July Celebration has been slated for tomorrow night at 9:15 in Second Street between Liberty and Pennsylvania—the selection of a celebration Queen and her court. The purpose of scheduling this a week ahead of the actual celebration is so the young ladies chosen have plenty of time to get prepared for the events of the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th. The Queen is to be outfitted by Betty Lee's and the members of her court by Metzger-Wright's and, of course, the ladies must have adequate time for this very important function. Then there are several banquets planned in their honor. So an extra week was deemed necessary.

Geracinos "Home Spun Inn" is the latest to offer to fete the Queen and her court. They will serve them a Royal Breakfast at 9:30 on the morning of the Fourth.

Floating entries for the parade on the morning of the Fourth are not coming in as rapidly as they might. The Committee knows of many firms and organizations who intend to enter but as yet these intentions have not been officially stated. Anyone who plans to enter a float is urged to send in the coupon to be found in this issue or else contact John Newmaker at once.

The Division Chiefs and Aides will have their hands full on the morning of the Fourth. It is their job to line up all the entries in their specified divisions and with twenty three divisions in the parade there is bound to be confusion. Fourth Street will be jammed with bands, drum corps, floats, marchers, etc. looking for their proper place in the parade. A meeting of the Division Chiefs was held at the American Legion last Tuesday night. Heggise Schmidt has been in charge of getting the Chiefs and Aides together.

Drum corps guides to meet the corps at Beaty School and act as escorts throughout the day of the Fourth are being recruited by Allen Anderson from the Phalanx Club.

Incidentally, the Warren Borough School Board has kindly offered the facilities of Beaty School for dressing rooms for all corps visiting Warren.

Starbrick Raceway Will Be Ready For Opening On July 2

Ben White, amusement promoter, who is adding automobile racing to his chain of enterprises at Starbrick, including the White Drive-In theater and the Town Barn, announces that the Dicky-Ben Speedway will open with a program of stock car races Sunday afternoon, July 2.

Grading of the half-mile oval has been completed for some time now, and may experienced racers who have inspected it say it is one of the best in northwestern Pennsylvania or western New York.

Associated with White in the venture is Richard Morrison, of Kinzua, who has had much experience in the auto racing game. They expect to announce early next week complete plans for the opening day a week from Sunday.

The Starbrick track is laid out east to west, and the judges' stand will be on the south side. White intends to grade the space inside the track and when the place is completed the promoters will have unlimited space for parking. The track will also provide an excellent airstrip for use of White's private airplane.

Sportsmen To Hear Tionesta Publisher

Rear Admiral J. K. Davis, publisher of the Forest County Republican and the Marienville Express, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Northwest District, Federation of Sportsmen to be held Sunday afternoon at the Kalbfus Rod and Gun Club near Clarendon.

The meeting, to be held under supervision of the Warren County Council of Sportsmen, will get under way at 2:30 o'clock. Several resolutions on doe season and other game and fish matters will be considered.

A dinner will be held following the business session, starting at 5:30 o'clock. Those who are planning to attend are asked to make reservations by tonight with Don Curtis.

Safety Rally Held Here By the Pennsy Is Well Attended

Another well attended safety rally was held by the Warren district of the Pennsylvania Railroad last night at the Recreation Hall. The affair was in charge of the police department with P. J. Murphy, captain of Erie, acting as master of ceremonies, in the absence of Ray Corcoran, of Buffalo, who has acted in this capacity in past sessions. E. P. Adams, superintendent, was also missing due to being on a vacation trip.

Mr. Murphy opened the meeting with the audience singing "America" and a few remarks on safety and the object of the meetings. J. Young, assistant master mechanic, from Erie, gave an excellent talk and wished to impress upon the railroad men the following definition of safety: "Safety is a combination of common sense and good team work." Paul Mansfield, supervisor of agents from Erie gave a splendid talk and said in part that most everything has been said about safety, but all we can do is to reiterate over and over again not to get hurt.

In the line of entertainment, the E. P. A. quartette composed of P. J. Murphy, C. L. Knipper, Ralph Pitts and Howard Irwin with K. Yerge at the piano, sang several numbers and also put on a skit: "Johnny Gets a Hair Cut," which was a riot for laughter.

Movies were shown on fishing, sports and humor, which were well received. Ford Winner's trio furnished the music for the evening and several novelty numbers received a wonderful acknowledgment.

Door prizes were given lucky holders of the right number. Ivar Johnson of the local enginehouse got a nice hand after winning a prize by giving a splendid safety talk. Refreshments were served by the following committee: Chuck Schoenfelt, sergeant of police, chairman; O. B. Kinney, agent; H. J. Long, enginehouse foreman and R. S. Holcomb, car inspector of Warren.

Interesting Paper Presented Before Club At Sheffield

Sheffield, June 22 — "Should Plants Eat Between Meals?" was the topic of the paper given at the meeting of the Sheffield Garden Club by Mrs. J. C. Curtin when the club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sanford Secor. Mrs. L. E. Shippey, St. Petersburg, Fla., a guest, told of her club, The Interlock club, in St. Petersburg, and also described the Florence Crittenden home there. Another guest at the meeting was Mrs. Emma Secor.

Plans were made for a thirteen dinner at the July 12 meeting at the Clyde Bidwell camp, with weather permitting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Malven Bowser and Mrs. Earl McCaskey.

Plans are underway for a card party in St. Anthony's hall, with the Catholic Daughters of America sponsoring the event to be held next Thursday evening at 8 p. m. Bridge, 500 and canasta will be played.

The Lincoln Boy Scout troop meets this evening at 7:30 p. m. in the school building for the regular weekly session.

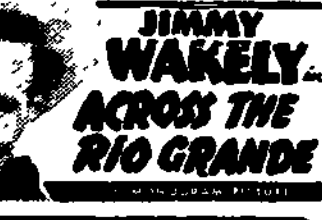

The meeting of the Washington Boy Scout Troop will be held this evening at Twelve Acres in the form of a weiner roast at 6:30 p. m.

$62,000 Allocated To Warren Co. For Soil Conservation

The Warren county Production and Marketing Administration has the responsibility of making sure that the $62,000 allocated to Warren county under the 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program is used to obtain the maximum in soil saving, soil building and water conserving practices.

N. E. Dodd, chairman of the county Production and Marketing Administration committee, points out that the county committee is charged with the responsibility of protecting the interests of the people who pay the taxes to provide funds for ACP.

The county committee, he explains, uses the best information available in determining conservation standards which must be met in carrying out conservation practices. Prior approval is required for some practices to be sure that farmers understand the requirements before the work is started. The assistance provided the individual farmer represents a partnership between that farmer and the rest of the people of the county," says the chairman. "In accepting this assistance the farmer also accepts an obligation to carry out the conservation practices in the interests of those who provide the funds."

"Because assistance to individual farmers has been found to be the most effective and economical way of getting essential conservation work done, Congress provides funds to help farmers carry out needed practices. This places a definite responsibility on both the Production and Marketing Administration committee and cooperating farmers to use the available funds for the most needed conservation practices and to carry out the practices according to accepted standards."

W P L REPORTING

Several people have asked, "How do you decide what books to buy for the library?" Well, book reviews are the main source of information, of course. Sometimes a book will be ordered just because the author is well known, but this doesn't happen very often.

In order to get a fair opinion of a book, it is necessary to read more than one review. By contrasting what is said in the New York Times, the Saturday Review of Literature, Time and Newsweek, etc., with the professional opinions in the Library Journal and American Library Association Booklist, it is possible to know the effect of a book on a journalist, a writer and educator, a businessman and a librarian.

By that time, it should be fairly obvious whether the book is worth buying or not. Sometimes, it's a difficult business, though. The deluge of anti-Communist books presents a disturbing problem; for a librarian (or anyone whose business is in dealing with the printed word) knows that the most dangerous people will jump on the bandwagon of a good cause.

The safest rule is to stick to books that cite respected authorities. That is one reason why the public library does not buy a copy of John Flynn's "The Road Ahead". (It isn't necessary to buy this book, anyway, as the Reader's Digest reprinted it and a large national corporation distributed thousands of copies of this reprint to libraries, institutions and individuals for nothing).

Another good rule is to try to make sure that the author of a book is an honest scholar of his subject. Both these rules apply in the case of the public library's most recent book on Communism. It is "THEORY AND PRACTICE OF COMMUNISM" by R. N. Carew Hunt. He has been studying history and practice of Communism for many years. There is no hysteria in his book, but there is solid advice and a warning.

Theatre reviews were the basis for the choice of a new play just published in book form. It is "THE LADY'S NOT FOR BURNING" by Christopher Fry, and is undoubtedly the wittiest, most artful piece of writing for many moons. It is a satire with a happy ending and tells the story of a girl accused of being a witch but saved by the clever nonsense of a young man who falls in love with her in spite of his determination to remain free.

"THE LONG DISCOVERY" was an obvious choice, because its setting is Pennsylvania. Reviews confirmed that it was a good story and it is. It tells of the interwoven relationships and the changing attitudes in a small mining town where most of the population has come from eastern Europe. To the first generation, life in a mining town was heaven compared with the poverty and slavery of the Balkan feudal system. The second generation, of course, saw only the poverty, danger and slavery to the mine in their own situation. This is a direct, uncomplicated story, and a very good yarn.

Humorous books are difficult to choose because they are often reviewed with too much enthusiasm. And, too, one man's humor is sometimes another man's cure for insomnia. However, the reviews of Scott Corbett's "The Reluctant Landlord" seemed sensible as well as enthusiastic—and it really is a charming book. It is the story of a veteran whose wife buys a rooming house in a desperate attempt to find a home before her husband is discharged from the service. The roomers, of course, are part of the purchase. The young husband bemoans the fact that they do not have a janitor and his wife answers, significantly, "But we do have one." By the time the young man understands thoroughly who the janitor is, many odd and funny incidents have occurred.

PICNIC POSTPONED

The picnic of the Warren Foremen's Club, scheduled for Saturday at the Cornplanter Rod and Gun Club, has been postponed indefinitely, it was announced today.

LICENSES REVOKED

In the week ending June 2, the Bureau of Highway Safety withdrew the cards of 389 drivers. Of this number four were revoked and 385 suspended. Operating privileges were restored to 591.

LITERATURE REQUESTS

Requests for literature about Pennsylvania as a vacationland are reaching an unprecedented figure this year, said Theodore Roosevelt, III, secretary of commerce. In the first three months of this year 47,253 individual requests for literature and specific information were received by the vacation and recreation bureau of the Department as against 30,967 requests for the same period last year or a gain of 16,286.

SUNRISE BREAKFAST

Next Sunday morning the men of First Presbyterian church will hold a sunrise breakfast at the Warr-Penn and all men of the parish, with their wives or girl friends, are cordially invited. Tickets are available at the church office and the B and B Smoke Shop, or may be had by contacting Bob Schwartz or Bob DeLong. Bacon, eggs, rolls and coffee will be provided, the breakfasters to bring their own fruit or fruit juice and table service. Serving will be promptly at eight o'clock.

BOOK ON PENN'A

Another book will soon be added to the long list of Pennsylvania Publications, says the State Department of Commerce vacation and recreation bureau. "Pennsylvania's Susquehanna," a story of the great Keystone State river written by Elsie Singmaster Lewars will soon come from the presses. It is being printed by the Mount Pleasant Press, Harrisburg. Many photographs by Robert McFarland will be used. Mrs. Lewars is the author of more than a score of books with Pennsylvania backgrounds, the most recent one of which was issued about a year ago under the title "I Heard of a River," the story of the birth of the Pennsylvania rifle, miscalled the Kentucky rifle.

VACATION FARMS

More than fifty well-kept Pennsylvania farms have been listed by Farm Vacations and Holidays, Inc., of New York City, as ready to accept persons who want to spend their vacations on a farm, says the State Department of Commerce vacation and recreation bureau. The Pennsylvania listings are a part of a booklet prepared by the above organization for the states east of the Mississippi River. In the compilation of the list the organization had the help of the National Grange and other well-known reputable farm groups. All the farms listed were visited and inspected by representatives of Farm Vacations and Holidays, Inc., which makes a small charge for the book.

Before farmers began to cultivate America's midwestern plains, says the Book of Knowledge, prairie dogs often dug tunnels more than 100 miles in length.

NOTICE

DEWEY AND 1952!

Decisions in politics never seem to have quite the firmness they do in other areas of life, but there's a definite air of finality about Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's statement that he's out of the 1952 New York governorship race.

There's no reason to believe Dewey has thus eliminated himself from the presidential sweepstakes for all time. But he has unquestionably bowed out as a 1952 GOP possibility.

His action means, first of all, that the New York delegation to the 1952 Republican convention will be controlled by somebody else. But insofar as Dewey has personal influence with his party in New York and the nation, he will undoubtedly seek to use that weight at nominating time.

The governor is realistic enough not to imagine he could employ it to achieve a third straight GOP nomination for himself, especially now that he has put himself outside the active political circle. Everything suggests he will try, however, to promote the choice of a candidate who shares his generally liberal views.

In this purpose he will be aligning himself with other progressive elements in the Republican Party. If Governor Warren wins a third term in California and Governor Duff puts his hand-picked candidate over for governor of Pennsylvania, this wing will have a strong nucleus.

Who the progressives' candidate will be is of course way up in the air. Both Warren and Duff are themselves in the running. There's persistent talk that Dewey favors General Eisenhower and will throw all his strength behind the general. Dewey has dropped no hint to support the rumors.

This much can probably be said safely: Dewey and other top figures in the GOP liberal camp will buck the nomination of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. The governor has no love for the Ohioan and the feeling seems to be mutual. Warren, if successful, is unlikely to put his powerful California delegation behind so conservative a man as Taft. Duff worked for Taft in 1948, but only after his first choice, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, got out of the contest. His natural bent is the other way.

No question, the progressive GOP forces would be stronger in 1952 if Dewey came to the convention as a third-term governor in full control over the huge New York delegation. But it would be a mistake to underrate his influence simply because he has withdrawn to the sidelines.

Dewey has a clear record as an excellent administrator at Albany, as a top vote-getter both in New York and the country. He has a name that must be reckoned with. Either at his present 48 or at 58, the governor would be a powerful factor if he chose to campaign again for high office.

No seasoned politician in either major party is likely to write Dewey out of politics permanently until he has reached the retirement age.

MAN FOR THE JOB

There is good sense in the naming of W. Averell Harriman as a White House co-ordinator of foreign affairs.

A lot of us are inclined to imagine that foreign policy is something made by the State Department and the President and occasionally ratified by Congress. Actually some 46 government departments and agencies take part in U. S. foreign affairs.

Observers of our foreign relations have been decrying for a long time the lack of liaison in this scattered effort. Decisions by the Commerce Department or the Treasury could conceivably undermine policies laid down by the Secretary of State. These are but two examples.

A co-ordinator who can draw the various strands together will perform a highly useful service in helping the United States achieve a harmonious, effective foreign policy. Harriman, a veteran of international experience, appears admirably chosen for the job.

Another in the long series of meetings and special conferences required to set up a successful Fourth of July celebration, will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the American Legion Home. The committee has a big task in making arrangements for the event. You can do yours by sending a check to the Celebration Treasurer, Warren National Bank. Do it now!

It's going to be difficult to make some people believe that the population of the borough and county has not grown since the 1940 census.

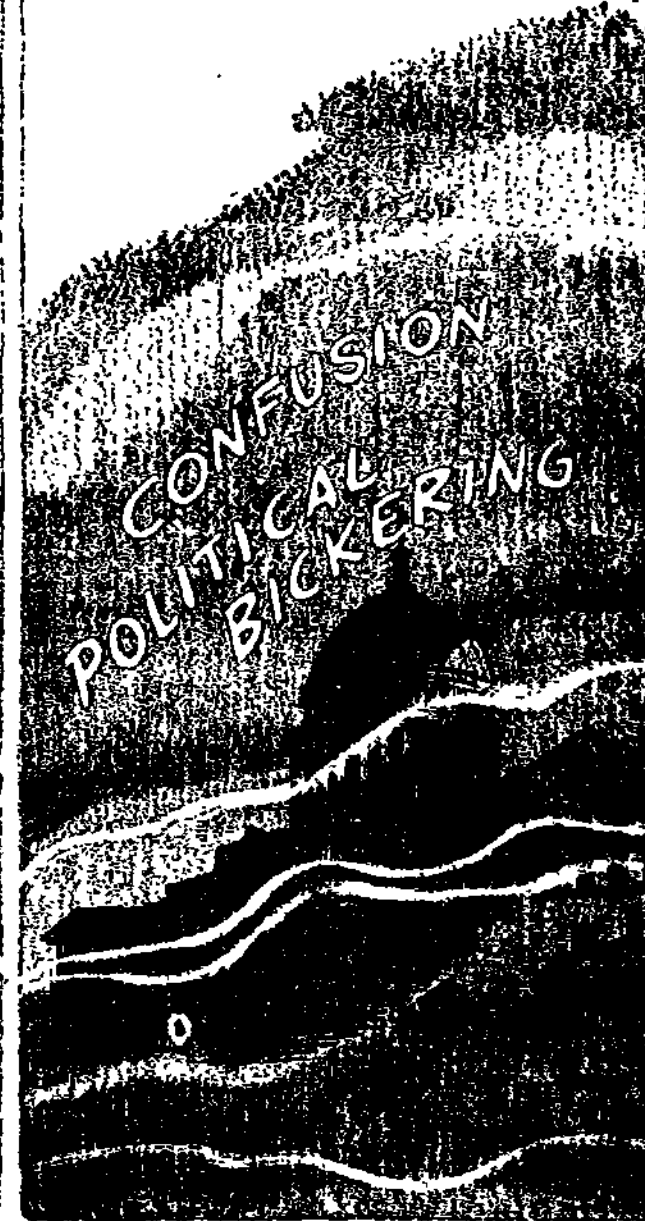

Some June brides won't be able to cook their cake—and eat it, too!

Here And There

The drum corps competition at War Memorial Field on the afternoon of Independence Day will be a real "battle of champions." How do we figure this, and what gives us the nerve to make such a statement? Well, this is how it stacks up: The Niagara Falls corps is National champion of the AMVETS organization, the Lock Haven corps is national champion of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Massillon, Ohio, unit is champion of the state of Ohio.

There you have it—A battle of champions for the first and grand prize of $800. Other units entered that are certain to give the "champions" stiff competition, are the Dunkirk American Legion, Ridgway, Salamanca, Erie and Homestead. That totals up to eight of the outstanding Drum and bugle corps units in the entire eastern section of the United States, that will be competing in Warren on the same afternoon, adding up to the most spectacular program ever presented in the section.

In addition to these drum and bugle outfits, there will be offered one hour of regale entertainment, preceding the competition. Included on this part of the preliminary program will be the IOOF Home band from Meadville; the Sheffield VFW Blackface drill team, the Elkettes Drum and Bugle corps of Titusville; the Marine Corps League Junior drill team of Titusville and the Canadian Legion Pipe band of Toronto, Canada. This would be a sensational program in itself.

This And That: Frank Parker tells us that a limited supply of the official "First Day Covers" of the three-cent commemorative stamp honoring the Boy Scouts of America, will be available at the Boy Scout office, and persons interested are invited to call and make reservations for them.

The famous Homestead Grays, colored team, plays Black Ash, at Carter Field in Titusville this evening in what should turn out to be a fast and interesting game.

John W. Johnson, Madison avenue, roving reporter through leading countries in Europe, postcards from Amsterdam, as follows: "Amsterdam, June 5. We are now at the city of Amsterdam, crossing back from Paris, up the coast of Callaise, where the 28th Division landed in 1917, through Holland. Having grand time; 18 Americans in the tour. Expect to be in Copenhagen June 8. Greetings, John." One thing we are unable to understand, is just where this card has been since two weeks ago last Monday. We are pleased to acknowledge receipt of a copy of "The Nuptial Noose," printed by Fritz Kennet, down at Pelham, N. Y., in connection with the wedding of his daughter, Miss Dorothy, to James Hoagg, of Scarsdale, Saturday, June 3. It is a "special issue" containing "All the news that print to fit," and priced at "Just a smile." Printed in tabloid form of four pages profusely illustrated with old-time pictures the paper is one of the most interesting and unique that we have been privileged to inspect in 46 years of newspaper work and our copy will be carefully preserved along with a few other cherished souvenirs.

Thanks, Fritz, and best wishes to the newlyweds. . . . We are in receipt of correspondence concerning the convention of the Pennsylvania State Coroners to be held in Erie July 7th and 8th, which we are planning to attend. Erie County Coroner Warren W. Wood has been doing an excellent job in reviving the organization and has an excellent program for the meeting. . . . The Celebration Committee will meet this evening at the American Legion home and it is important that all workers be present. The time is getting short and there is much to be done.

Looks like there will be a great crowd out for the ceremonies arranged in connection with the selection of the queen to take place in Second avenue tomorrow evening, beginning with a concert by the VFW band at 8:30 o'clock. The actual drawing will start at 9:15, giving merchants and their clerks an opportunity to close up and get down to the scene of activities.

Several factors seem to have been responsible. One was the licking the cock-sure Republicans took in the 1948 election. Another was the legislative program which the Democratic-controlled House almost put over in the 1949 state legislature. Still another was growing opposition by businessmen to proposals of the Truman administration in Washington. Finally there was a general feeling that something had to be done in the way of political organization to offset the success of the CIO Political Action Committee.

"THERE is a powerful and efficient organization working against your best interests," wrote A. C. Conde, executive vice president of the Indiana Manufacturers' Assn. in a July 1, 1949, letter to his members. The subject of this letter was "Political Strategy." It marked the start of an unpublicized but none the less forceful effort to make the viewpoint of management better known to lawmakers and political officials in state and city offices.

This approach resulted in part from experience during the last sessions of the state legislature. Lawmakers then asked the representatives of the manufacturers why they came around only once every two years, when the legislature was in session.

Typical of the way in which the manufacturers have quietly been trying to correct this situation is the report on a recent meeting in Batesville, Ind., in the furniture manufacturing section. Harold Ingersoll, president of the Indiana Manufacturers, and a few other IMA officials met for seven hours with the two state senators and two candidates for the lower house from the area, just to acquaint them with the problems of management.

But the connection is even closer than that. In the recent Indiana primary, seven members of the Indiana Manufacturers' Assn. were nominated for the legislature. Two won nominations for the senate, five for the lower house. One of the senate candidates and two of the house candidates were Democrats, the others Republicans.

In addition, an uncounted number of representatives of the Indiana manufacturers have become precinct committeemen—the lowest of the political offices in the state.

The feeling seems to be that since it is the businessmen who are asked to make the campaign contributions that support the two political parties, these same people should have some say in who the candidates shall be that seek public office.

While the Manufacturers' Association has thus been working at the top levels of political influence, the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce has embarked on a campaign of much broader appeal.

Under Clarence A. Jackson, executive vice president of the Indiana Chamber, an ambitious program of political education has been mapped out. Jackson is registered as a Democrat and is a former Paul V. McNutt assistant on social security administration. Jackson is also an official of National Tax Equality Assn. which has been fighting the co-ops in particular and high taxes in general.

America, will be available at the Boy Scout office, and persons interested are invited to call and make reservations for them.

While the Manufacturers' Association has thus been working at the top levels of political influence, the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce has embarked on a campaign of much broader appeal.

Under Clarence A. Jackson, executive vice president of the Indiana Chamber, an ambitious program of political education has been mapped out. Jackson is registered as a Democrat and is a former Paul V. McNutt assistant on social security administration. Jackson is also an official of National Tax Equality Assn. which has been fighting the co-ops in particular and high taxes in general.

YOUR FORESTER

One of the many compensations derived from working in the woods is the opportunity afforded for meeting many interesting wood-land characters during the day's work.

The most interesting trio I have met, since coming to the Allegheny Forest, was a mother bear and her two cubs a few days ago not far from the village of Weldbank.

I was walking down a log road when I heard the frightened squealing of the cubs, the grunt of the mother bear, and saw a great commotion in the underbrush that had seeded in on a recent cut-over area. The cubs scampered over to their mother like two frightened kids, and she turned around to face me after having caught my scent, although I was close enough that even with her weak eyes she must have sized me up as an undesirable character.

At this moment the effects of some very early training in the Montana Rockies, where grizzly bears were not uncommon, caused me to overcome my natural tendency to approach closer to this interesting trio, and I altered my course of travel instead. Under the tutelage of a Swede woodsman in the Flathead River country of Montana I learned that a mother bear with small cubs was something to respect as much as a rattlesnake, and more than once he forced me to rapidly retreat from a particular spot because he thought he saw a cub bear up a tree and feared the mother bear might mistake our intentions.

I have never encountered a wild animal in the woods yet, including a Canadian timber wolf, that wouldn't give ground, and had I proceeded toward this bear I suspect that she and her cubs would have beaten a hasty retreat. However, the force of habit developed some 28 years ago when at an impressionable age governed by actions, and I failed to learn much about this bear family.

The black bear which was once very common throughout the State is now confined to only 6 counties, namely, McKean, Warren, Elk, Forest, northern Jefferson and northern Clarion counties.

Because the black bear can maintain itself only where there are large unbroken tracts of forests, the half million acre tract covered by the Allegheny National Forest insures for all time a sizeable habitat for this interesting big game species.

Improvement of this habitat has been under way since early

REPORT OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT
North Warren Municipal Authority:

We have examined the balance sheet of the North Warren Municipal Authority as of March 31, 1950, and the related statement of cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statement of cash receipts and disbursements, present fairly the financial position of the North Warren Municipal Authority at March 31, 1950, the recorded cash transactions for the year then ended and the cash balances at that date in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Sedan Defies Lightning Bolt

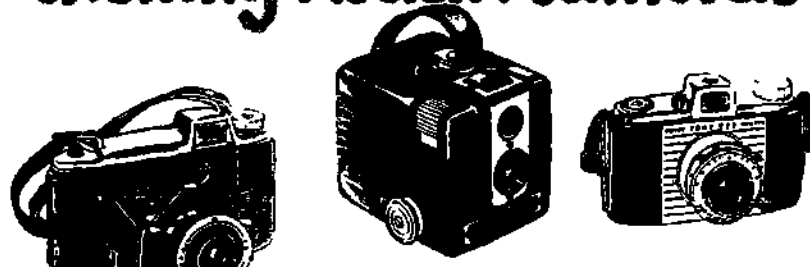

SUNNYVALE, Cal.—Using a Chevrolet four-door sedan, the Westinghouse Electric Corp. demonstrated here that a man's best friend in an electrical storm is his automobile. Joseph H. Cox, engineer, sat nonchalantly behind the wheel while a 2,400,000-volt of man-made lightning banged into the steel roof. As shown below, the shock passed around the roof and harmlessly out through the Chevrolet's tires.

The volt was produced by the 25-foot-high "surge" or impulse generator which can be used for a quality control test on big power transformers.

PARTY IS GIVEN FOR NEWLYWED COUPLE

Russell, June 22—Sixty persons attended a party given Tuesday evening in the Methodist church to honor Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yeagle, recently married. Following a fine tureen dinner at 8:30 o'clock, in charge of Mrs. George Hedges and Mrs. Gerry Briggs, a program planned by Mrs. Charles Titchner and announced by Leo Kelley was presented as follows:

Piano solos, Carol Fehlman; two numbers by a male quartet comprised of Edwin Branstrom, Ray Albaugh, Ronald Fehlman and Clyde Briggs; remarks, Dr. C. H. VerMilyea, John VanOrsdale and Leo Kelley; instrumental duet, Mrs. Robert Mack at the organ and Ray Albaugh, pianist. The honored ones were remembered with a variety of miscellaneous gifts from the group.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Tony Braley, of Sheridan, Ore., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clark, North Warren.

David Farr, son of Mrs. Mary Farr, Pennsylvania avenue west, left by bus for Toronto and flew from there to Edmonton, Canada. From there he will leave for Hebasasca to visit his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeFrees, Liberty street, are leaving today by motor for Seattle, Wash., and Fairbanks, Alaska, and a month's tour of the Rockies and points west.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Morley, Poplar street, have returned from a trip to Flagstaff, Ariz., and the Grand Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, of Boone, Iowa, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trusler, 12 Orchard street, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Groff of the same address. Returning today to their home in Pittsburgh after a visit with Warren and Jamestown relatives are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trusler, Jr., and sons, Bruce and Bill.

During the Civil War, West Virginia had three governments, an exiled northern government in Alexandria, a Confederate government operating from Richmond and a third at Wheeling.

Ministers Planning Community Vesper Services July 2nd

The Rev. Nore G. Gustafson, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church and president of Warren County Ministerial Association, is endeavoring to interest singers of the various church choirs of the community in participation in the association's part of the Fourth of July celebration.

All choristers are invited and urged to sing in the service being arranged by the association and scheduled on the lawn of Beaty Junior High School at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, July 2.

A community choir will be under the direction of Byron Swanson and the singers are asked to meet for rehearsal at St. Paul's Lutheran church, West street and Second avenue, next Thursday evening.

Any directors or singers who have not already accepted the association's invitation are asked to do so no later than Monday by calling St. Paul's church office, 621.

Erie Golfers Win Shriners Tourney

Are you having any checkout trouble at your A&P?

When we first started our Customer Relations Department, we received more comments about delay at the checkout stands than anything else.

We've worked hard since that time to give you the kind of checkout service you want.

Are there enough stands to care for all our customers promptly?

Are the checkers efficient, accurate and courteous, as they should be?

Does It Pay?

You Bet It Does!..

More Than 2,000,000 Contented Customers Buy "Super-Right" Meats at A&P Every Day!

Corn-fed pork and beef, milk-fed veal, and well-nourished lamb are just about the tenderest, tastiest, juiciest meats you ever ate. They're the only kind A&P's experts select for our "Super-Right" Meat Departments, so it's not surprising that contented customers keep coming back for more. You will, too... once you've discovered how delicious "Super-Right" meats always are. We could sell cheaper, inferior grades of meat. But our customers wouldn't be contented... and our business wouldn't flourish as it does. The moral: It pays A&P to sell only "Super-Right" meats and, what's more important, it pays A&P customers to buy them.

TO TRIM excess waste and fat with extra care and skill so you'll get a maximum of good eating for your money?

TO PAMPER porkers and steers with plenty of corn... to cater to the tastes of calves and lambs, too?

TO TAKE only a small profit per pound in order to give you meats of outstanding quality that are grand values.

State Crops Are In Need of Sunshine And Warm Nights

Harrisburg—Pennsylvania crops are in need of more sunshine and warmer nights, a federal-state agricultural survey showed today.

The survey, covering the week ended yesterday, was announced by the state agriculture department.

The survey said the cool, rainy weather has retarded crop growth in many sections. It added that the daytime temperature for the period was nine degrees below normal in most areas.

Elsewhere on the farm scene, the survey reported:

"Early stands of canning peas are being cut. Transplanting tomatoes is about finished and first plantings for market are slow to set fruit. Strawberries are a short crop and a considerable rot of berries is reported in the north, the crop is just ripening, while production is past peak in the southeast.

"Planting of late potatoes is nearing completion in the Potter plateau area. Most late varieties in other sections are up and making rapid growth. Early potatoes are developing tubers. Transplanting of tobacco is progressing rapidly.

"Wheat is showing some rust, but most looks good. Plants are heading in the north, and past blooming stage in the southeast—lodging of rank growth is in evidence. Oats are making rapid growth, and early fields are heading. Occasional stands have poor color. In the southeast some barley is ready to cut.

"Wet weather hindered hay making and some alfalfa in the southeast has spoiled; cutting is under way in central counties. Most pastures are in fine condition and providing good grazing."

It was a difficult hand to make, since all of the cards in the red suits were badly placed for declarer. However, Pessimistic Pete saw a way to make his contract in spite of such bad breaks.

The opening lead had been the king of clubs, and dummy had won with the ace. Pete, playing the South hand, then drew two rounds of "rumps."

IT'S DEATH, MY DARLING!

By Amelia Reynolds Long

Chapter 2

WE approached the house along a winding driveway bordered on either side by the oleanders, now in full bloom, from which the place took its name. The house itself was of traditional Southern architecture. At either corner, and about ten feet removed from the house proper, was an octagonal structure. These were the garconnières erected by the original builder of the house for his growing family of sons. At present, as I learned a little later, they were occupied respectively by Amédée and Henri, and Beauregard Dumont and Lewis Haye.

As Amédée brought the car to a stop in front of the house, the broad front door opened, and an elderly colored man hurried to the side of the car.

By this time a woman who appeared to be somewhere in her early sixties had come out upon the gallery. She wasn't fat exactly, but she was what might be described as a lady with a front. Seeing me, she sailed forward.

"So this is Katherine!" she exclaimed. "Welcome to O'Connell Plantation, my dear."

"Aunt Minerva, Peter," Amédée introduced.

"How do you do?" I murmured feebly.

Aunt Minerva turned to the colored man. "Take Miss Katherine's things upstairs, Bountiful," she directed. "She's to share the west room with Miss Roberts." She slipped a plump arm about my waist, and event me across the gallery and into the house.

A door near the foot of the stairs opened, and a man appeared. He had the dark hair and eyes of the Dumonts, but there the family resemblance stopped. His other features were enshrouded in a soft puffiness which gave him the appearance of a slightly dissipated cherub.

"My son Claude, Katherine," Aunt Minerva announced.

Claude Dumont had been smoking a big, crook-stemmed pipe. Now he removed it from his mouth to permit his face to crease itself into an oily smirk.

"Well," he exclaimed. Then he advanced and enveloped my hand in a big paw that felt like warm, sticky taffy. "The Dumont men sure know how to put 'em. You and I will have to get better acquainted, Peter."

The situation was saved by the sudden entrance of a girl. Her dark, curling hair was cut short, like my own, and her boyish slenderness was emphasized by the sport shirt and jodhpurs she was wearing.

"Hello," she said, getting in under the wire ahead of Aunt Minerva's introduction. "You're Peter, aren't you? I'm Dede's cousin, Pick."

"I'm awfully glad to meet you, Pick," I said. I was thinking that if she hadn't come along when she did, I might have had to resort to a cold chisel to get my hard froe from Claude's.

Aunt Minerva cleared her throat to command attention.

It was almost as if she was talking about something supernatural.

"If you're going upstairs to dress now, Pick," she said, "you may show Katherine to her room. I presume that she would want to refresh herself after her journey."

WE escaped up the stairs then, leaving Claude still smirking fatuously.

Pick left me at the door of the west room, where I found Bobby Brennon, who was to share it with me, doing things to her face in front of a mirror.

"Well," she observed as soon as we exchanged greetings, "I see you've met Cousin Claude."

"How did you know?" I asked in surprise.

"He's the only one here," she explained, "who exchanged greetings of the cousin relationship to raw. I can tell from your expression that he must have tried it on you."

"Well, not exactly," I answered with a laugh that the recent memory of Claude made a little forced. Then I asked, "What are the rest of them like?"

"Beau reminds you of something out of a Sabatini novel," she began. Lee is nice too in a quiet sort of way. Uncle Raoul, their father, thinks of us as Damnedyankees—all one word—but he does it like a gentleman, so it isn't offensive. Cousin Jeff Marshall I can't quite make out; but—"

A light tap at the door interrupted her, and in response to our joint "Come in" a little old lady entered. Appearing not to have noticed Bobby, she came straight to me.

"You are Peter?" she asked. "And you are Aunt Delphine?" She nodded, and smiled in a vague sort of way. Her faded gray eyes studied my face with an eddy childlike curiosity.

"You are just as Dede said you would be," she observed finally, as though satisfied. Then for the first time she seemed to become aware of Bobby's presence.

"And who are you, chérie?" she inquired.

"I'm Bobby, Aunt Delphine," Bobby replied patiently. "Don't you remember? I came down this morning with Henri."

"Yes, yes, of course." The old lady gave another of her vague smiles.

Releasing my hand, she started toward the door. But when she was about halfway there, she paused, and began to look about her uncertainly.

"Have you seen them?" she asked, addressing both of us in general.

I remembered what Amédée had said about her false teeth.

"No, Aunt Delphine," I answered. "But if you like, Bobby and I will help you look for them."

"No, chérie, that won't be necessary," she said. "They will come of their own accord and make themselves visible when they are ready." Then she continued out of the room.

"Poor old thing!" Bobby exclaimed, laughing. "Dede told you, I suppose?"

"Yes," I answered. "But he didn't say she had them trained like carrier pigeons, to—"

"Peter, what's the matter?" Bobby demanded.

"Bobby, she wasn't talking about her teeth!" I rasped. "They're in her mouth. I saw them when she smiled. She was referring to something else. It's almost as if she was talking about something supernatural!"

Chapter 3

When Bobby and I came down stairs a half hour later, we found most of the family assembled in the smaller drawing room or "back parlor."

First, there was Uncle Raoul; a tall, dark man whose soldierly erect bearing belied his sixty odd years. Outwardly he was stately and courteous, but it was evident that he was inwardly seething. I could guess that he was bitterly resentful of "the woman's" calm assumption of the position of hostess in his father's house. As for Aunt Minerva herself, she was almost openly triumphant. Evidently she was fully aware of her brother-in-law's feelings, and was smugly enjoying the fact that he was powerless to do anything about her.

Then there was Beauregard Dumont—or Beau, as he was called by the others. He was, as Bobby had said, strikingly like Amédée, but there was also a difference. That difference was betrayed in the devil-may-care recklessness of his dark eyes and the air of cynical amusement with which he regarded the scene around him.

Lee, his elder brother, was entirely unlike him in both appearance and manner. Whereas Beau was dark and dashing, he was extremely fair, with delicate, almost effeminate features and the shadow of some chronic illness plainly visible beneath the waxlike pallor of his skin. Instead of being amused by the attitude of his father and his aunt toward each other, he appeared to be acutely embarrassed, even distressed, by it.

The final person in the room whom I had not previously met was a rather handsome man who looked to be somewhere in his middle forties. His black hair was lightly touched with gray at the temples; and he wore a gold-rimmed pince-nez through which he looked at the rest of the party with a sort of tolerant detachment. Aunt Minerva introduced him as Cousin Jefferson Marshall.

In addition to Pick, who had come down with Bobby and me, Amédée and his brother Henri were also present. Amédée had assumed an attitude of polite ease, which Henri was making a boyishly grim effort to copy. But the behavior of both—toward their Aunt Minerva in particular—was just a shade too formally correct to be entirely natural.

CLAUDE DUMONT had been absent from the room upon our arrival, but now he appeared in the doorway, carrying a tray on which were an enormous cocktail shaker and several already filled glasses.

"I told that old servant he didn't know how to mix drinks, so I mixed my own," he announced loudly. "Well, have a real, honest-to-God Manhattan?"

He received no immediate response, and his eye came to rest upon me.

"What about you, Peter? You'll have a lil' drink, won't you?"

"Peter doesn't drink Manhattans," Amédée snapped before I could answer.

Claude ignored him, but he didn't press his invitation. Instead he turned to Bobby who, with Henri, happened to be standing near him.

"What about you, honey chile?" he asked with an ogling grin. "Won't you taste my wares?"

I didn't catch Bobby's reply in words, but I saw her shake her head. However, Claude wasn't taking no for an answer a second time. He set the tray on a nearby table, and picked up one of the filled glasses.

"Oh, come on," he coaxed, thrusting it at her. "Just to please me. Good old Southern hospitality, y'know." He pronounced it "hospit'ility."

"Henri took a step forward. "She told you she didn't want any," he said.

Claude glanced down at him impatiently.

"You keep out o' this, Small Change," he commanded. "I wasn't asking you."

"I'm answering," Henri retorted. He was glaring up at his larger cousin like a fox terrier defying a bulldog. "Or maybe you need your ears slapped back so you can hear better."

For a moment the two stood face to face; Henri wiry and paper-like, Claude towering over him with the menacing bulk of a bludgeon. By this time every eye in the room was upon them; but it was one of those situations where it is almost impossible to interfere without making matters worse. Aunt Minerva was smiling indulgently, as though to her son's boyish high spirits; but there was a nervous quality about her smile which betrayed that even she realized that he had gone too far.

Bobby, evidently in the hope of averting the trouble which seemed to be imminent, started to put out her hand to take the glass which Claude still held; but Henri, perceiving what she was about to do, caught her wrist in his left hand, staying the gesture. His next act, I knew as certainly as though he had announced it, would be to snatch the glass himself. And having seen the Dumont temper in action on one or two occasions before, I also knew what he would do after that. He would fing the contents of that glass full into Claude's beaky, smirking face.

I held my breath, and prayed that some sort of intervention would come. And then, miraculously, it did.

As Henri had caught Bobby's wrist, Beau Dumont had disengaged his lean length from the woodbox. He didn't appear to hurry, but somehow he managed to get across the room before either Henri or Claude could make another move.

"I guess I'd better taste that stuff to see if it's safe for a lady," he drawled lazily. Appropriating the glass himself, before Claude could summon sufficient presence of mind to resist, he took a drink from it.

"Poison!" he exclaimed, grimacing extravagantly. "Claude, what you got in there besides carbolic acid and nitroglycerine?"

There was a general laugh from the others, in which Claude joined feebly; and the tension was broken. But there had been something about the incident which suggested that, far from being an isolated occurrence, it had been the latest of a number of similar incidents.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lindell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Firth, Mrs. Margaret Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Wilcox and son and Lloyd Wilcox attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Basil White at Warren.

COLD STORAGE PLANTS HAVE BIG RESERVES

Harrisburg—(A) — Pennsylvania's cold storage plants today reported substantial increases in reserve stocks of dairy products and a drop in poultry holdings.

The State Agriculture Department said record production of milk in May is largely responsible for cold storage supplies of dairy products increasing during the month.

The drop in dressed poultry holdings amounted to more than a million pounds, the department said. A 3,592,000 pound total on June 1 showed a decline of 1,127,000 pounds for the month.

In addition to new large-scale milk storage, holdings of eggs, butter, cream and cheese also increased greatly.

Song, The Bible—Terry Reist, Larry Brown, Thomas Peterson, Andy Peterson and Shannon Hanna; chorus, Booster, Booster, Be a Booster—by the school; song, O How Lovely Is the Evening—led by Cadet Sedlar; song, All of Life for Christ—Donna and Shirley Osborne, Leonette Lauffenberger, Thomas and David Peterson; duet, Under His Wings—David and Thomas Peterson, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Edith Warner; prayer, Cadet Sedlar.

LILLIAN SWANSON PRESENTS PUPILS

Youngsville, June 22—The high school auditorium was well filled for the recital given by 35 pupils of Lillian Swanson. Those present were delighted with the excellent performance of the pupils, who ranged in age from small children to high school graduates. Miss Swanson is not only to be complimented on ability of her pupils to play accurately and with feeling, but for the careful selection of numbers in keeping with the abilities of pupils. Appearing on the program were the following:

Jane Lois Hinchliffe And
N. K. Wendelboe, Jr.,
Wed In Roslyn Church

The Presbyterian church of Roslyn, Pa., was the scene of a pretty summer wedding at 4 P. M. Saturday, June 17, when the Rev. John K. Lynn united in marriage Jane Lois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hinchliffe, 2454 Independence avenue, Roslyn, and Nick K. Wendelboe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Wendelboe, Warren.

The bride, wearing white lace with full train, was given in marriage by her father and had as her attendants Mrs. Donald Geyer, Dumont, N. J., as matron of honor; the bridegroom's sister, Mary Wendelboe of Warren, and Joan Haran, Germantown, as bridesmaids. Others in the bridal party were Mr. Wendelboe, as his son's best man; with the ushers, Jack D'Angelo and Jack Hickey, Warren; Frank Shaner, Philadelphia, and Gerald Henry, Grove City.

Wedding music was by Henry E. Jacobs, Fox Chase Manor, as organist, and Mrs. Jack Hickey, sister of the bridegroom, Warren, singing three selections.

Following the reception at the Old Mill Manor House at Ambler, the couple left for a New York honeymoon, after which they will live in Roslyn. Both young people attended Grove City College, with the bride a teacher of music in the Devereaux schools and Mr. Wendelboe an employee of Proctor and Gamble Company.

Irvine Presbyterian Group Hears History

The Ladies Union of the Irvine Presbyterian church held its June meeting at the home of Mrs. Ernest Oviatt, with 12 members present. Devotions, led by the president, Mrs. Carl Munson, consisted of the Lord's Prayer and scripture reading from Ephesians.

During a brief business session, it was planned to have a picnic in August.

Mrs. Munson chose as the topic for the evening, "A Review of Irvine Presbyterian Church History," with members reading "The Story of Our Church" from facts furnished by the late Mrs. Fred Eaton of Warren and a column by Arch Bristow on the occasion of his visit to the historic little stone church.

Special music for the program was furnished by Miss Theresa Nelson, who played a piano solo, "The Wayside Chapel," and a vocal duet, "The Church in the Wilderness," by Mrs. N. B. Huling and Mrs. Ben Hucklebone.

Mrs. Harry Gillespie gave a list of ministers who have served the church and, to conclude, a poem, "God Bless Our Church," was read by Mrs. Kermit Vicander.

For the social hour, refreshments were served from a dining table centered with peonies, rosebuds and lighted candles.

The July 20th meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Kermit Vicander.

Warren Y-Teens Going Regional Sessions

Four Warren Y-Teens will attend the Regional YWCA summer conference June 23-29 at Camperty Acres near Buffalo, N. Y., the Mrs. Curtis Allison accompanying the girls. Representing the Warren High School Girls' Club will be Marjorie Wilson, Beverly Chapman, Eleanor Coker and Sally Reed. Theme for this year's conference, "Our Way Is the Y's Way" and song topics to be discussed by participants are: Understanding Ourself—how can I be happy; what is a philosophy of life; how does the YWCA help us; what is this? Understanding Ourself—what makes us different; how do we get along with others; what about when we are the ones who are different from others? Understanding the World—what would it be like if the U. S. were Communist; what is my responsibility in a democracy; can we have peace with the nations? Besides lecture and discussion groups, the girls will have the opportunity to take hobby groups, which include ideas for Y clubs, music, folk dancing, crafts, dramatics, officer training, and others. Recreation is an important part of these conferences and the girls enjoy swimming, tennis, archery, softball and badminton. One of the fine things about summer conference is that it is planned by Y-Teens as well as adults. During the winter, planning conferences were held where six Y-Teens talked over the things they sought girls wanted to hear and do at the conference. They decided what the girls want to know how the YWCA can help young girls become "wise" citizens of their schools and communities and a program has been built about that idea.

Warren delegates will gain valuable experience by attending the sessions and will also bring back new ideas for bettering their own Y-Teen club.

Kelley-Briggs Reunion Very Well Attended

Russell, June 22 — The 51st Kelley-Briggs reunion was held at Spencer's Grove, Kiantona, with 20 persons present. A tureen dinner served at one o'clock was followed by the business session conducted by President Howard Fox. The secretary read the minutes of the last reunion, also minutes of the first meeting held June 17, 1898. Nine members present at this year's gathering were in attendance for the first get-together. Officers were all reelected: President, Howard Fox; vice president, Paul Kelley; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Theodore Fox; historian, Mrs. J. M. Lewis; grounds committee, Elburn Briggs and Theodore Fox; able, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Cable; entertainment, Mrs. Lynn Burgett; ice cream and pop, Paul Kelley and Elmer Swanson. The historian's report showed 11 births, three marriages and nine deaths during the past year.

Mrs. Burgett presented the following numbers for her program: Vocal solo, Robert Gleason; readings, Beverly Kelley, Jane Burgett, Carolyn Kelley and Jennie Griffin; instrumental trio, Joyce and Rae Dorelson and Teresa Moss; trumpet duet, Charles and Clair Cable, accompanied by Mrs. Howard Fox; novelty number, Easter Parade, in charge of Grace Graham; instrumental trio, Theodore Fox with his dulcimer, Howard Fox and his guitar and Mrs. Fox at the piano.

Ice cream was served before the group adjourned to meet at the same place on June 17, 1951.

Coming the farthest distance for the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gleason, Washington, D. C., and Albert Collins, from Washington state.

Play Clothes Have Their Place ---But Not in the Classroom

BARE midribs and shorts and sun dresses that are scanty enough to cause comment aren't appropriate costumes for girls to wear to school, a public school principal in a Southern city recently announced—and thereby stirred up a lot of protest.

It seems to me a public school principal has a perfect right to step in and denounce shorts and bra tops for school wear, if mothers haven't sense enough to dress their children more appropriately.

Play clothes that are suitable for a beach or the privacy of one's own home aren't suitable for school and street wear.

Yet a lot of girls aren't learning that fact at home. You see girls everywhere running around in the briefest of shorts and skimpiest of bra tops. And Mama, herself, is just as likely as not to be doing her grocery marketing in the same type outfit.

SCHOOLS SHOULD TEACH THEM IF MOTHERS WON'T
SO if Mama hasn't better taste for herself or her daughter, it looks as though it is up to the schools to lay down a few rules.

Maybe that will give the younger generation some idea of the necessity for dressing appropriately.

The word "lady" is old-fashioned and seldom used any more. Yet it is still important for a girl or woman to look the part of a "lady" by being dressed according to the occasion.

The sooner a girl learns that fact, the better. Mothers used to teach their daughters that, and some of them still do.

But many girls are growing up today without any idea of what to wear on what occasions. If the schools can teach them what they aren't learning at home, more power to the schools.

SILVER WEDDING OF DONALD HUNTERS

Eighty relatives and friends attended the open house held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunter, 127 Jackson street, North Warren, in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary. The couple received many nice remembrances and Mrs. Hunter was presented an orchid by her sons.

The refreshments table was centered with a mauve flower arrangement and silver candles, with peonies and roses used in further decoration of the living and dining rooms. Mrs. Marge LeTrent presided; Mrs. Mae Check, Mrs. N. Jeanette Font, Mrs. Evelyn Greenawalt, Mrs. Margaret Watmuff and Mrs. Mary Anderson served, and Mrs. Sarah VonVolkinburg had charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blakely and sons, Robert and Curt Andrew, and Mrs. Roberta Blakely, Depew, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blakely and son, Harvey, Jr., Lancaster, N. Y.; William F. Hunter, Houston, Texas.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slow down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, or your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 60 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

St. Joseph's Parent-Teacher Unit Elects Slate For Next Year

Election of officers at the regular meeting of St. Joseph's Parent-Teacher unit marked the closing of a very successful year of activity. The slate suggested by the nominating committee was unanimously elected as follows: President, Mrs. Sandy Fadale; vice president, Benny Scallise; secretary, Mrs. Ray Slate; treasurer, Charles Musante.

A vote of thanks was given John Flaus and his officers for the fine work they have done, also to Mrs. Freda Davis, who handled so capably the difficult job of program chairman.

The unit has been very active during the past month, one event being an ice cream social on the church lawn and more than 600 persons served.

A committee from the unit served the graduation breakfast for the students completing their schooling at St. Joseph's on Sunday, June 11. Class colors of green and white were carried out in the beautifully decorated room and table appointments. Class booklets and favors were made by the Benedictine Sisters, and each member of the class received a class pin and a miniature lapel rosette pin, the latter a gift from the Sisters.

The thirteen members of the class were: Karlene Gibson, Dianne Eggleston, Denise McGarry, Thomas Musante, Paul Rizzardi, Stella Jaffino, Josephine Zaffino, Mary Jane Siliano, Theresa DeMatteo, Barbara Lou Harris, James Tricico, Marilyn Kays and Micheline Figliuzzi.

Business of the regular meeting consisted of discussion of police patrol for school in the fall; report on the silver which has been purchased for use of church organizations; purchase of the newest type of desks and seats, which, with the new lighting, will make St. Joseph's school one of the best equipped in the area. It was voted to hold the final meeting of the unit in May next year.

WITH HONORS—John L. Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Harrington, 430 Chestnut street, has been graduated with honors from University of Pittsburgh, receiving his bachelor of science degree in pharmacy as one of 2,440 graduating seniors. While in college, Jack was a member of the American Pharmaceutical Association; associate editor of the school paper, The Capsule; regent of Kappa Psi fraternity; member of Rho Chi scholastic honorary, and was class president in both his junior and senior years. He has been employed at Gaughan's Drug Store since 1943, and after completion of his state board exams, expects to be permanently located there as pharmacist. While in school, he was employed at Buckley's Pharmacy, Pittsburgh.

EASTERN WEDDING OF INTEREST HERE

A beautifully appointed wedding which took place June 10 in the Trinity Episcopal church of Wilmington, Del., united in marriage Mary Taylor Eckles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Eckles, of Knollwood, Yorklyn, and John James Morris, 3rd, who is the son of Mrs. Robert Lee Myers, Wilmington, the former Josephine Gregory of Warren.

After a reception in the Hotel duPont, Mr. Morris and his bride left for a wedding trip. The bride is a graduate of Grier School, Birmingham, Pa., and of Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, Mass. Mr. Morris is an alumnus of Friends School and attended Princeton University. He served as a lieutenant in the Marine Corps during World War II.

They were remembered with a gift from the group and Mrs. Perks was wearing an orchid presented in honor of the occasion.

Present were Mrs. Perks' sister, Miss Carrie Burgie; Mr. Perks' sister, Mrs. Ellen Gary; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gary and daughter, Donna, Thomas and Dorothy Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cobb and daughter, Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gary, Louise Perks, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson and children, Charles and Barbara.

MIDSUMMER FESTIVAL AT ST. PAUL'S FRIDAY

The annual Midsummer Festival sponsored by the Martha Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will be held in the church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30.

An interesting program arranged will include a talk by Pastor Nore Gustafson on the synodical convention held recently in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Clarence Pearson will sing a group of vocal selections, and a trio of young boys, David, Stanley and Robert Lindberg, will present piano and vocal numbers.

A social hour will follow the program, and refreshments will be served by the fellowship committee. A cordial welcome is extended to all members and friends.

45TH ANNIVERSARY OF JOHN MAEDERS

Mr. and Mrs. John Maeder, 458 Prospect street, were happily surprised for their 45th wedding anniversary Wednesday, when they were entertained at a six o'clock dinner at Bide-A-Wee Inn by their children.

Arranging the party were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Maeder and family, North Warren; Rev. and Mrs. Leon H. Tickner and family, Pleasantville. The honored ones were presented a beautiful floor lamp from the family.

Clarendon Group Remembers Flag Day With Program

Featuring the regular meeting of the Marshall Larsen Auxiliary, VFW at Clarendon, a special program was presented in commemoration of Flag Day, with Mrs. Mabel Nobles as chairman.

During the social hour, members of the Firemen's Auxiliary were guests and plans were discussed for participation in the Old Home Week celebration.

A report was made concerning the auxiliary and post visitation to veterans at Warren State Hospital, when a program was presented for the vets under the direction of Mrs. Minnie Vidin, hospital chairman. The program opened with singing of "The Star Spangled Banner", with Janina Swartz as accompanist. Pete Mesner, of WNAE, entertained with several readings, accompanied at the piano by Walter Whaley; Chuck Tranter, also of WNAE, put on a very enjoyable magic act; Alvin Albaugh sang several selections, with Mrs. Marie Crocker as accompanist; Pete Himes and Junior Briggs entertained with several guitar and vocal duets; and the program concluded with Miss Swartz accompanying the singing of "America".

Candy, popcorn and cigarettes were distributed to the veterans, along with a promise to return for another program and party. The auxiliary is most appreciative of the efforts of all who helped to make the visitation so successful.

Entries Are Still Being Received For Youngsville Parade

The main feature of the Youngsville Firemen's Celebration, taking place this week, will be the huge parade to be staged at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The list of entries for this event continues to grow with the following fire companies to be present:

Slippery Rock, Saegertown, North Warren, North East, Armstrong Hose of Johnsbury, Albion, Rocky Grove, Seneca, Sugar Grove, Warren, Tidoute, Clarendon, Columbus, Stoneboro, Linesville, Stanford Hose of Corry, and from New York state, Sinclairville, Busti, Westfield and Celoron.

American Legion Posts of Sugar Grove, Corry and North East will also participate, as well as a delegation of Girl Scouts.

The parade will form on College street, and will move across Davis street to East Main, west to North Main, up North Main to High street, to West Main street and return across the bridge to Island Park.

Judges for the parade will be Sidney Davis and Klahr Peterson, who have previously judged parades in Youngsville.

Prizes have been offered for the best band, the best drum and bugle corps, the best drill team, best appearing organization of 20 or more men, for most men in line, for best ladies' auxiliary, for best appearing fire apparatus, and for the longest distance traveled.

Tonight's special event at the celebration is the county water battle, to be staged on the lower end of Island Park between fire departments of the county. Russell is the defending champion in this tournament which always provides a great deal of fun for both firemen and spectators.

Russell Fire Dep't Elects New Officers

Russell, June 22—Charles Fox was chosen president of the Russell Volunteer Fire Department in an election which featured the regular meeting of the organization last evening. Others named to office were:

Ray Thompson, vice president; Charles Miller, secretary; Vinton Finzer, treasurer; Pat Perry, elected chief; Kenneth Jespersen, assistant.

It was decided to have a summer picnic for the fire company, auxiliary and band members, with their families, with the following named as a committee to work out the arrangements: Leonard Weston, Ray Thompson and Paul Lindell.

It was reported that band uniforms ordered have arrived and the band will march in parades at Youngsville Friday evening and at Frewsburg Saturday evening. Uniforms for the firemen have been ordered but have not all arrived, it was stated.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

Bethel Evangelical Church to Observe 28th Anniversary

Bethel Evangelical United Brethren church, located at the corner of Hertzell street and Pennsylvania avenue, east, will observe on Sunday the 28th anniversary of the dedication of the present church building, and the day promises to be a significant one in the history of the congregation.

It was just 28 years ago, June 25, 1922, that the church was dedicated during the pastorate of Rev. V. O. Weidner, who is now the bishop of the Southwestern Area (UB) of the Evangelical United Brethren church and located in Kansas City. Dr. S. Paul Weaver, of Jamestown, the Conference superintendent, will be the speaker for the morning and afternoon services, 11:00 and 3:00, respectively.

The choir will bring special music in the morning service, singing "Let the Earth Rejoice" by Dale and "A Good Thing to Give Thanks" by Benson.

The big feature of the afternoon service will be the burning of the last note on the church indebtedness, while special music will be two numbers, "I Am Redeemed" and "Precious Memories," sung by the Men's Chorus of the Youngville Evangelical United Brethren church.

Rev. Harold V. Lindquist, pastor of the Youngville church and a former member of Bethel parish, will be the speaker for the 7:30 p. m. service, using as his theme "Do I Love the Church?" The Young People's Choir will have the special music.

All members and friends of Bethel church will be happy to learn of this momentous occasion and are invited to share in all the services of the day.

NAMED CHAIRMAN

Albert J. Harrington, McKean county treasurer, has been named Democratic chairman. He succeeded Frank W. Thomas, of Bradford, who refused re-election.

PROWLER CALL

Police were called to the 600 block of Fourth avenue about 10:30 o'clock last evening when residents reported a prowler. No one was found by officers.

COMMUNITY PICNIC

The Pleasant Volunteer Fire Department extends a welcome to all to be on hand for the community picnic it is sponsoring Sunday at the Zinger cottage at Oakview. Everyone is reminded to bring a basket picnic for serving at two o'clock.

M'KEAN FATALITY

Franklin Leonard, 28, fell to his death from a pole used in stacking hay Wednesday on his father's farm at Bolivar Run near Bradford. Leonard was using climbing equipment to mount the pole. It toppled suddenly and he could not disengage himself. He died of a broken neck.

TEMPLE GRADUATE

Mrs. R. A. Newhall, North Warren, has returned from Philadelphia, where she attended commencement exercises at Temple University and saw her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert W. Fertig, receive a bachelor of science degree in education. Mrs. Fertig accompanied her home for a visit.

FEMALE EVERETT TRUE
Shades of the old "Everett True" cartoons which years ago ran in the Times-Mirror were revived last night as a carnival part engaged in combat in the downtown section. The female side of the couple was beating her husband over the head with an umbrella about 4:30 a. m. today and interested bystanders called police. All had been forgiven and peace reigned when officers arrived.

CAR HITS DEER

Robert W. Koebley, 14, 122 Frank street, a passenger in a car operated by Charles Niederlander, also of Frank street, was given emergency treatment at Warren General Hospital early yesterday afternoon following injuries received when the car struck a deer near Weldbank. He was discharged after treatment for lacerations and abrasions of the right hand and arm. State police have no report of the damage to the car.

PICNIC CANCELLED

The WSCS picnic of First Methodist church, which was to have been held this evening, has been cancelled.

New May Record
In Milk Output Of State Is Expected

Harrisburg—Pennsylvania dairy cows keep on producing milk—in record amounts.
But the cows must have had a bunch that June 15 Dairy Month. They prepared for it by producing 600,000,000 pounds of milk during May, according to Federal-State surveys announced by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.
May's milk output in the State was almost four per cent above the previous high of 579,000,000 pounds set in May last year.
However, milk production per cow on June 1 was an all-time high for any date of record. At 25 pounds average for that day it was one-half pound above the previous June 1 mark set in 1949. Pennsylvania milk cow numbers at 876,000 showed a slight decline from the previous month but were 11,000 above the June 1949 estimate, the survey revealed.

The average price of Pennsylvania dairy cows on May 15 was $211.00, exceeding April 15 by $7.00, but $8.00 less than a year previous. Farmers this May were averaging a return of $3.90 per hundred-pounds of milk, wholesale, 10 cents less than during April and 30 cents under May 1949.
The May price brought a return of only 8.4 cents a quart to farmers. Meanwhile, prices farmers pay for feeds advanced during the month from 10 to 55 cents a hundred pounds.
Temperatures during May averaged slightly below normal but frequent rains favored growth of vegetation and most pastures improved greatly during the month. Special surveys revealed that on some dairy farms the percentage of feed obtained from pastures rose sharply from four per cent on May 1 to about 70 per cent on June 1.
Prospects for the 1960 hay crop have improved and farmers in most sections of the State anticipate good yields.

New U.S. Stamp Honors Boy Scouts

Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson announced that this stamp "in honor of the Boy Scouts of America" will be placed on first-day sale at Valley Forge, Pa., on June 30, the day President Truman opens the National Jamboree there. More than 47,000 Boy Scouts and leaders including 570 from 28 other lands will camp together at this historic site until July 6.

Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson in announcing complete details of the 3-cent commemorative stamp honoring the Boy Scouts of America, to be released at Valley Forge, on June 30, the opening day of the National Jamboree, pays high tribute to the organization.

Appearing prominently in the left-center portion of the stamp will be a group of three boys, typifying the three age level programs of the Boy Scouts of America, namely, left to right, Exploring, Cub Scouts and Boy Scouting. In the background, to the right of the boys, is a reproduction of the Statue of Liberty, symbolizing the organization's crusade to "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty."

In the right-center portion appears the Universal Badge of the Boy Scouts of America, above which is the wording "On My Honor I Will Do My Best," the opening phrase of the Scout Oath, and below, "Boy Scouts of America" in dark Roman lettering. In a narrow shaded panel across the bottom of the stamp are the words "United States Postage" in white faced Roman, with the denomination numeral "3c" enclosed in a circle in the extreme lower left corner.

The finished model of the Boy Scout stamp was sketched by Charles R. Chickering. The vignette was engraved by Charles A. Brooks and the lettering, numerals and frame were engraved by Edward H. Helmut.

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations of this stamp may send a limited number of addressed envelopes, not in excess of ten, to the Postmaster at Valley Forge, Pa., with postal note or money order remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed. An enclosure of medium weight should be placed in each envelope, and the flap either sealed or turned in. The covering envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers." Requests for first-day covers should be mailed in ample time to reach the Postmaster well in advance of the day of issue.

A limited supply of the official "First Day Covers" will be available at the Boy Scout office. People may call to make their reservations for these covers.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

Let's have an ice cream festival at home during June. Make something big and wonderful, like a devil's food ice cream cake with coffee cream sauce. It's easy, this cake. You can buy the ice cream, now, at your favorite super market as well as at your neighborhood store. Also all the fixings, such as the packaged devil's food cake mix.
So let's plan our ice cream festival. Ask all the children, too, ice cream, an important member of the dairy foods family, contains protein, calcium and riboflavin.

Devil's Food Ice Cream Cake (Serves 6-8)
One quart vanilla ice cream (bulk), 1 package devil's food cake mix.
Place ice cream in freezing compartment of refrigerator until ready to use. Prepare cake mix according to the directions on the package. Bake in a buttered loaf pan (9x5) for 40 to 45 minutes. Allow cake to cool thoroughly. Cut into three layers.
Spread ice cream between the layers reserving enough ice cream to make four scoops for the top of cake. Place layers in freezing compartment of refrigerator along with the remaining ice cream. When ice cream and cake have become firm, remove from refrigerator; place on serving tray and top with scoops of ice cream in a row down the center of cake. Serve immediately with Coffee Cream Sauce.

Coffee Cream Sauce (Makes about 1/2 cup sauce)
One cup light brown sugar, 1 tablespoon instant powdered coffee, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cornstarch, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup light cream, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract.
Mix sugar, coffee, salt and cornstarch together. Add butter and cream and stir over low heat until boiling. Boil for about one minute. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Serve cold over devil's food ice cream cake.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Stewed eggs and apricots, ready-to-eat whole wheat cereal, coffee cake, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Bacon-wrapped frankfurters on rolls, shredded lettuce salad, sliced bananas, iced tea, milk.
DINNER: Fruit cup, roast stuffed shoulder of veal, mushroom browned gravy, roasted potatoes, green beans, buttered rolls, lettuce, tomato and cucumber salad, devil's food ice cream cake with coffee cream sauce, coffee, milk.

FOR THRIFTY, TASTY SALADS

VIMCO PICNIC SALAD (Serves 4 generously)
8 ounces VIMCO elbow macaroni, salt, chopped celery, chopped onions, sweet pickle relish, dry mustard, cider vinegar, 1/4 cup mayonnaise, 2 tomatoes.
Cook VIMCO macaroni to instructions on box.
Add celery, onions, and pickle relish. Blend mustard and vinegar. Add with mayonnaise. Mix well.

Anniversaries Of Eleven Counties To Occur This Year

Harrisburg—Eleven of Pennsylvania's 67 counties mark their centennials or sesquicentennials in 1960 and some of these counties observing their anniversaries will stage celebrations, says the State Department of Commerce vacation and recreation bureau.

Cumberland county, however, will mark its 200th birthday this year along with eight counties that are 150 years old this year and two that are 100 years old.

Cumberland county, created in 1780, was taken from Lancaster county and named for Cumberland county, England. Carlisle was named as the county seat in 1782 and incorporated as a borough in 1821.

Sesquicentennial birthdays are marked this year by Adams, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Centre, Crawford, Erie and Mercer counties, and Montour and Fulton will observe their 100th anniversaries.

Adams county was named in honor of President John Adams. It was created in 1800 from part of York county and Gettysburg was incorporated as a borough in 1807.

Armstrong county, created in 1800, was named for General John Armstrong. It was established from parts of Allegheny, Armstrong, Westmoreland and Lycoming counties. Kittanning, county seat, was established as a borough in 1821.

Beaver county was established in 1800 from parts of Allegheny and Washington counties, and named for Big Beaver Creek. Beaver, the county seat, was incorporated as a borough in 1802.

Butler county, named for General Richard Butler, was created in 1800 from a section of Allegheny county. Butler, the county seat, was incorporated as a borough in 1817.

Portions of four counties—Huntingdon, Lycoming, Mifflin and Northumberland—went into Centre county, created in 1800. Its name refers to the county's geographical location in the center of Pennsylvania. The county seat is Bellefonte which was established as a borough in 1806.

Crawford county was created in 1800 and named after the frontier hero, Colonel William Crawford. Meadville, the county seat, was incorporated as a borough in 1823.

Erie county, named for Lake Erie, was created in 1800 from a section of Allegheny county. Erie, the county seat, also named for the Lake, was incorporated as a borough in 1805.

Mercer county was created in 1800 from part of Allegheny county and named for General Hugh Mercer. It was incorporated as a borough in 1814.

Fulton was created in 1850 from part of Bedford county and named after Robert Fulton inventor of the steamboat. McConnellsburg is the county seat and was incorporated as a borough in 1814.

Montour county was created in 1850 from a portion of Columbia county and named for Madame Montour, noted French interpreter. Danville, the county seat, was named for Daniel Montgomery, early storekeeper.

Work Started On Kindergarten For Youngsville School

Youngsville, June 22—Work has begun on the construction of a kindergarten for Youngsville school. The building, with foundation forms already laid, is to be located on the property of Herbert Maass, a corner lot on College and Bates streets, with the entrance from Bates street only a short distance from school buildings now in use.

The building is being constructed by Mrs. Maass and will be a one-story affair, with ample room for the kindergarten classes and other rooms needed in a school building.

If present plans are carried out, it will be rented to school board for as long as it desires the accommodation. If a new school building is put up later, this structure can readily be remodeled into a dwelling.

Enough parents of children of kindergarten age have petitioned the board to justify that body's going ahead with kindergarten plans and the hiring of an instructor for the work. It is expected the new schoolroom will be ready for use when the fall term of school opens.

Approximately 900 County Farmers In The A.C.P. Program

With the 1950 sign-up in the 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program now nearly complete, N. E. Dodd, chairman of the Warren county Production and Marketing Administration committee, announces that approximately 900 county farmers have signed up to participate in this year's program. This is 100 more than signed up for the 1949 program.

Mr. Dodd explains that when a farmer signs up in the Agricultural Conservation Program, "He is not signing away any privilege or freedom but is indicating his intentions to carry out soil and water

Warren Merchants Cop 1st Half Championship In Sunset Loop

Warren Merchants clinched the first-half championship of the Sunset Baseball League last night by downing the Conewango Township Merchants, 11-2, at the State Hospital field.

In other Sunset League action last night, Sons of Italy shut out Suppa Studebakers, 3-0, at King field, while Tiona overwhelmed Hammond Iron, 22-5, at Memorial field.

Kifer the winning pitcher for the Warren Merchants, allowed his opponents a scant two hits. He struck out 11 batters and allowed seven walks. Labetsky started for Conewango, but was replaced by Hines. They were shelled for a total of 14 hits.

Tom Juliano led the Warren Merchants hit parade with a double and a triple. D. Reed had two doubles, while Murphy was credited with five hits in five chances at the plate.

Score by innings:
Warren . . . 115 030 1—11 14 2
Conewango . . . 000 010 1—2 2 6

Umpires—Massa, Kifer.

The Sons of Italy-Suppa Studebaker clash was a tight game all the way. Jack Baker, the winning hurler, allowed the Youngsville squad but five hits and was never in trouble. It was Baker's second win of the campaign. He was credited with eight strikeouts and issued one walk.

E. Haight, Suppa moundsman, pitched four-hit ball, but five errors on the part of his teammates led to his downfall.

Sons of Italy notched a single run in the first when White led off with a walk, stole second and scored on a single by Castagnone. Another single marker came in the third when Mason was safe on Fraule's error, and he also stole second, was advanced to third on Castagnone's ground ball and made it home when B. Randinelli booted Whitaker's grounder.

Final run for the Sons of Italy came in the fourth when Berdine was safe on an error, went around to third on a wild throw to first and then scored on a passed ball.

Score by innings:
Suppa's . . . 000 000 0—0 5 5
Sons of Italy . . . 101 100 X—3 4 0

Umpires—Salerno and L. Berardi.

POOL TO CLOSE

The "Y" swimming pool will be closed for a thorough cleaning and renovating during the week of June 25, as both Jim Hengst, boys' work secretary, and Bill Mulvey, physical director, will be at the Warren YMCA Camp during that period. On Monday, July 3, the summer swim schedule will be resumed, and mixed swims will be started on July 11. The mixed swim will be for couples only, aged 16 and up.

Al Watrous Is First Surprise Player In The PGA Tourney

Columbus, O., June 22—(AP)—Old timer Al Watrous, in his prime 20 years ago as a Ryder Cup stalwart, has become the first surprise in the $40,000 mid-century PGA golf championship.

The prestige meet, which enters grueling match-play tomorrow, promises to be full of them before it's all over.

52-year-old Watrous, from Birmingham, Mich., carved a one-under-par 71 in yesterday's first qualifying round over the tortuous 7,032 yard Scioto Country Club layout.

Leading the first round with 70's were a home-run hitter and a switch-hitter. Powerful Chick Harbert hammered a pair of 35's while Marty Furgol, the cross-handed putter from Albuquerque, N. M., coupled 37-33.

Sam Snead, defending champion and favorite to peg his third PGA crown, was exempt from the trials. But he went around, anyway, hoping to pick up the $250 medalist prize. Snead slammed 72 to be grouped with 12 others in that bracket, including Lloyd Mangrum and Bob Hamilton the 1944 champion.

Keeping Watrous company at 71 were three players regarded as long overdue in major competition. They were affable Johnny Palmer, a tail-gunner with 552 missions over Japan who was beaten by Snead 3-2 in last year's finals; Elly Vines, who lost in the first round last year and has been in a slump since 1947, and 32-year-old Dick Metz.

Rodeo Is Planned By Kinzua Firemen

The Kinzua Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor a rodeo on Sunday afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock, at Anderson's field in Kinzua. The event will be held, rain or shine.

Events include ribbon roping, flag race, ladies barrel cutting, stock horse, cow milking, western jump, rope and tie, pick up race and several others.

Prize money and place ribbons will be awarded the winners. Contestants are entered from Bradford, Olean, Franklinville, N. Y., Batavia, Jamestown and Titusville.

A large crowd is anticipated.

COFFEE SHOP TEAM POSTS 10-3 VICTORY

Beebe's Coffee Shop chalked up a 10-3 triumph in a girls softball clash with the State Hospital squad. Batteries were Funley and Gatto for Beebe's and Sherwood and Root for the State Hospital.

Any team interested in scheduling a game with the Beebe squad may call 1063 between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. or 767-J after 5 p. m. Teams interested in booking games with the State Hospital squad may call Arden Anderson, Phone 939-J.

THE SCOREBOARD

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Seven hundred sandlot teams are playing through a series of qualifying leagues and tournaments in Japan for the right to meet the best of that commendable breed in the United States in a best-of-seven series in Nippon, starting Sept. 9.

This is an exceedingly healthy sign. It is one of the surest indications that democracy is working beneath Mount Fujiyama.

This will be the first official inter-hemisphere baseball championship in history.

Ray Dumont has taken his National Baseball Congress a long way from the Kansas plain, perhaps has done more for the business than the heads of the organized game.

The winner of the 16th annual National Tournament in Wichita, which opens Aug. 18, will be rewarded with a $50,000 all expense paid trip to the Land of the Rising Sun. The American non-professionals really have something at which to shoot.

As in Japan, they compete in state, sectional and national eliminations throughout the summer. The majority of the teams both in this country and Japan represent towns. They are sponsored by municipalities.

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR authorized the series. A 48-inch sterling silver trophy, the most elaborate ever designed, is to be picked up by the winner. Engraved on it will be five stars in honor of General MacArthur. A comparable secondary trophy goes to the loser.

General MacArthur has invited Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler. Former Postmaster General James A. Farley, the old Haverstraw, N. Y., first baseman, will participate in the presentation ceremonies in Tokyo.

The first three games are scheduled for Tokyo, the next two for Osaka, and then back to Tokyo.

Next to America, baseball is played best in Japan. All our great stars have been over there—from the late and lamented Babe Ruth on down the line. Leagues are named after such as Ruth and Lefty O'Doul, who had his San Francisco Seals in the Orient last fall, by the way. Japanese college teams toured our country before the war. But this will be the first actual World Series—the kids of the backyards of two countries, far apart geographically, battling it out on the field.

It's much better than a cold war—and there at least will be a decision.

FARM ROUNDUP

BY JOHN DETRICK
Harrisburg, June 22—(P)—Western Pennsylvania farmers and gardeners were advised today to be on the lookout this month for an expected invasion of 17-year locusts.

The advice was issued by the state agriculture department's bureau of plant industry.

The bureau said its timetable of appearances of 17-year locusts, shows that brood seven should show up this month in Allegheny and Washington counties where it last appeared in 1933.

The bureau explained that there are about 30 known broods or families of these locusts, and brood seven has been known to occur only in Allegheny and Washington counties.

Although the bureau has not yet received reports of appearances of the locusts in the two counties, it has received a specimen of a brood seven locust from Clearfield county. This may mean, a spokesman said, that the brood seven family has spread over a wider area than previously known to entomologists.

Brood seven locusts are not expected to appear in large numbers and little damage to trees will be inflicted this year, the bureau said. It asked all western Pennsylvania residents who find specimens of the insects to send them to the bureau here with information as to where they were found.

Brood eight of the periodical cicada is due to show up next year in practically all southern western Pennsylvania counties.

Centre county wool growers sold their annual wool crop last week for what was said to be one of the highest prices ever received for wool in the county.

The price will run from 10 to 12 cents above the 52-cent net received last year.

The wool was sold last week on the open market. The volume is expected to exceed the 17,000 pounds sold in 1949. The contract was awarded to Henry J. Benedict Company, of Camden, N. J.

Meanwhile, officials of the Franklin county co-operative sheep and wool growers association, have announced that a total of 21,832 pounds were delivered last week at its 27th annual wool pool.

The pool showed a sharp increase over the Superintendent Of White Hill Resigns

Harrisburg, June 22—(P)—The Rev. Eugene S. Keller has resigned from his $8400 a year post as superintendent of the White Hill Industrial School for Boys, located in Cumberland county near here.

Dauphin County Judge Robert E. Woodside, head of the White Hill board, said that despite a long investigation of the school by the State Welfare Department, Keller had not been requested to resign.

Judge Woodside said the resignation was accepted "with the regrets of the board and an expression of appreciation for the conscientious service rendered by the superintendent" during the seven years he headed the institution.

The resignation is effective July 1. Keller said that after a 60-day vacation he would take up "another position tendered me with the welfare department." He did not say what the job would be and the welfare department offered no comment.

Reports on the investigation conducted at White Hill remain in the custody of the Welfare Department.

UCT Council Enjoys Its Annual Outing

Over 120 members of Warren Council, United Commercial Travelers, attended the annual picnic held Wednesday evening at the Loper farm on Miller Hill.

The highlight of the outing was the fish fry served by George Seary and his committee, including L. E. Seary, past grand councillor; Howard Norris Harold Stull James Keller, Harold Ross, Leon Webster, Ervin Rader and others. Dinner was served on tables on the spacious lawn in the rear of the home.

Following dinner a brief program was held during which delegates reported a wonderful time at the recent convention at Greensburg.

The early evening hours were spent playing mousball, pitching horseshoes, and other outdoor games. Later canasta, cribbage and other card games were played indoors.

It was announced the next meeting will be the annual family picnic to be held this year at Benus Point on Chautauque Lake, the details for which will be reported later.

Apartment House Decision Expected

Arthur S. Storm, of Bradford, is expected to make a definite announcement within a few days on his proposed plans for erecting a 50-unit apartment building in Warren.

It is reported that sales agreements have been executed for the H. R. Fisher property at 209 Margaret street and a portion of the Herbert P. Stone properties at 203 and 205 Third avenue.

Final consummation of the sale is expected to take place following completion of surveys and title searches. The transaction is being handled through Redding and McIntyre, local real estate brokers.

Work on another 50-unit apartment building at Bradford, also built by Storm, is nearing completion.

ists and red sympathizers. That was last February.

Service was called before the committee today as:

1. Republican Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the minority leader, accused the Truman administration of "fumbling and bungling and whitewashing" the Amerasia case. Wherry called it "a national scandal."

2. A Republican-backed resolution calling for a new investigation of the Amerasia episode by the senate judiciary committee was shelved for the time being at least. The judiciary unit voted 6 to 4 yesterday to refer the resolution to a subcommittee with instructions that nothing be done about it until the current inquiry has been completed.

Trolley Car Tieup Looks In Philly

Philadelphia, June 22—(P)—Local 234, United Transport Workers (CIO), has voted a strike against the Philadelphia Transportation Co. starting at 12:01 a. m. July 1. The day PTC plans to put into operation a summer schedule of one-man trolley operation.

Union leaders announced the strike was voted unanimously last night at a meeting attended by 2,500 operating and maintenance workers. Police estimated about 1,000 attended the meeting. The union claims a membership of 10,500.

If it materializes, the strike would be the fourth against PTC in six years.

PTC has proposed to put 14 trolley lines on one-man operation for 11 Saturdays during the summer months.

THE MARKETS

New York, June 22—(P)—Advancing demand lifted stock prices fractions to around two points today. The advance was a continuation of a rally yesterday which broke a week-long slump in the market. Buying centered on the steel and automobile groups, as well as a selection of chemical, railroad and merchandising shares. Trading started off at a fast clip and a good volume of business was done later.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren's funeral home are from 10 a. m. to 12, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

CLAY E. BRIGGS

Clay E. Briggs, former resident of this city and son of the late S. H. and Ida J. Briggs, who resided for many years at 10 Franklin street, died suddenly this morning at ten o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. Lora B. Hesch, Titusville. Mr. Briggs had been a resident of Edmonds, Wash., for the past 40 years, and was preceded in death in March, 1949, by his wife.

Surviving are four brothers and two sisters. Lyle E. Briggs, Tidouate; Mrs. Lucia M. Phillips, Fern Park, Fla.; Mrs. Hesch, in Titusville; William A. Briggs, Miami, Fla.; Gaylord S. Briggs, Winter Park, Fla. and Dr. R. T. Briggs, Philadelphia, also a number of nieces and nephews.

Services in his memory will be held from the home of his brother, L. R. Briggs, Tidouate, at two o'clock Saturday afternoon.

MRS. J. P. JEFFERSON

Word has been received here from Santa Barbara, Calif., that Mrs. Mary Jefferson, widow of J. P. Jefferson, formerly of Warren, died Wednesday after an illness of more than a year. Services in her memory will be held from the home, 99 Fairway, in Santa Barbara on Friday. News of her death came to Mrs. M. R. Brann, North Warren, a niece of the late Mr. Jefferson.

EFFIE H. PATERSON

Miss Effie H. Paterson, associated with Warren public school system for many years, died at 11 a. m. today in Warren General Hospital. Miss Paterson was born at Russell on September 15, 1883, and spent most of her life in Warren. She taught in the Warren public schools for over 40 years, most of that time as principal of the Lacy building.

She is survived by a brother, Neil D. Paterson, of Warren, and the following nephews: Howard D. Putnam and Charles H. Paterson, Warren; Kenneth W. Donald and Robert Paterson, Erie; also one niece, Margaret Jean Gebhardt, Warren.

Services in her memory will be held at the Peterson Funeral Home at 3 p. m. Sunday. Calling hours will begin at noon Friday.

HARVEY A. SMITH

Harvey A. Smith, 73, of Youngsville, died suddenly about 6:30 p. m. Wednesday after an emergency operation at Warren General Hospital. He was taken ill yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Smith had been a resident of Youngsville for many years and was formerly employed at the Youngsville Star Manufacturing Company.

Surviving him are his wife, Carrie, three sons, Alfred, of Youngsville, and Jesse and John G., of Pittsfield, 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; one sister and one brother, Mrs. Lana Smith, of Driftwood, and Clyde Smith, of Lake, Miss.

Removal has been made to the Young Funeral Home where friends will be received at the usual hours after 7 p. m. today and from where services in his memory will be held at two p. m. Saturday, with Rev. R. W. Driscoll, retired EUB minister, officiating. Interment will be made in Youngsville cemetery.

REALTORS MEET

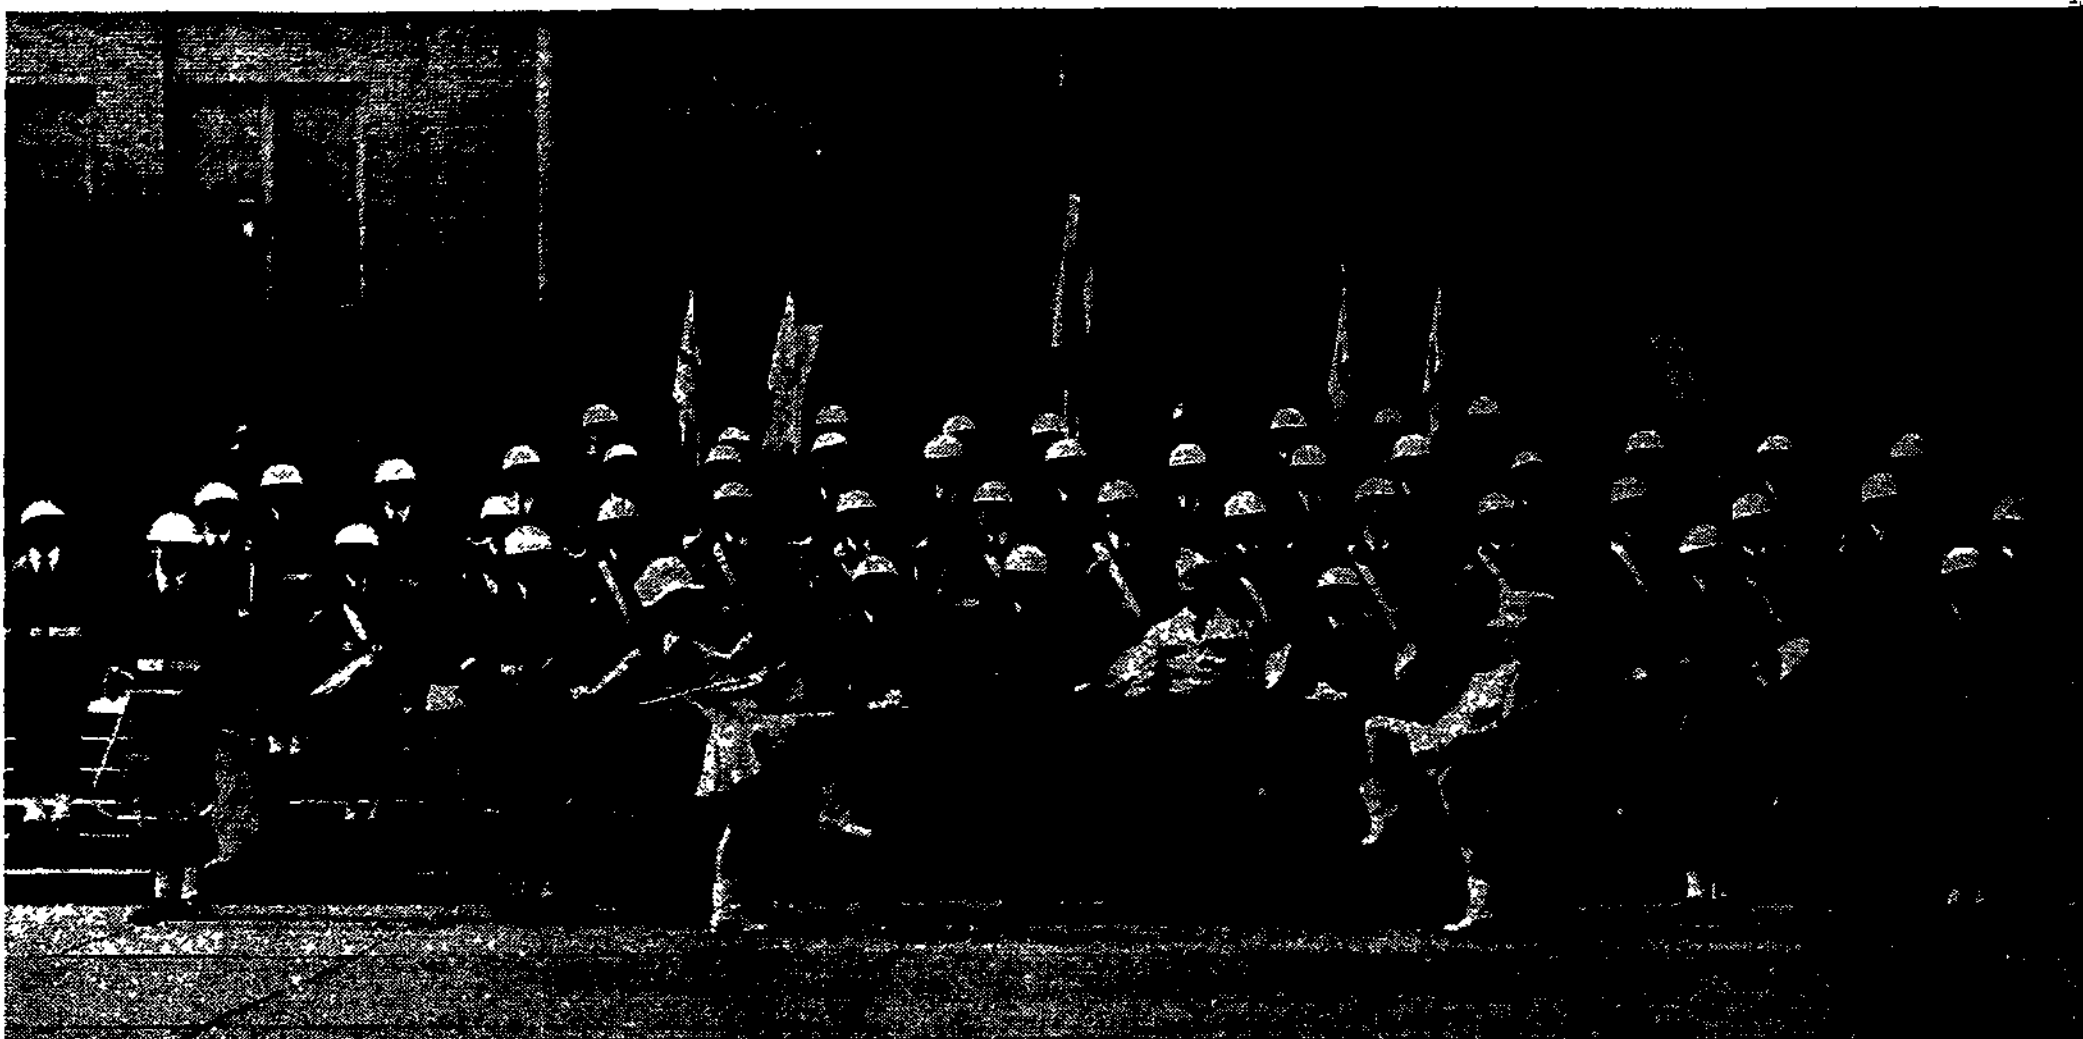

Oakley Holleb Barth, in charge of the Federal Housing Administration for Western Pennsylvania was the main speaker at a regional conference of Districts 5 and 7 of the Pennsylvania Realtors Association at the Wanango Country Club in Oil City yesterday. Attending from here were F. E. Redding, William J. McIntyre and Harold Swanson.

CAR IN DITCH

A blue automobile, reported to be a 1939 Dodge, rolled over and landed in the ditch on the west side of the highway in Conewango avenue extension near the Hatch Run bridge about 4:50 o'clock this morning. The occupants apparently escaped serious injury, for they disappeared from the scene without assistance. State police said this afternoon no report had been made of the accident.

It is a crack outfit of forty-eight men who have appeared in many national parades with high honors.

(From Page One)

The AFL Switchmen's Union of North America told the Rock Island, the Western Pacific, Great Northern, the Chicago Great Western, and the Denver and Rio Grande Western Lines yesterday that they were turning down a presidential board's wage and hour recommendations.

The board made its suggestion April 19. Since May 19, under the Railway Labor Act 30 day "cooling off" period provision, the switchmen have been legally free to strike. All the peace-making provisions of the law have been carried out.

The carriers were notified at the same time that the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the order of Railway Conductors were rejecting a wage and hour recommendation by a presidential board on June 15. They must "cool off" until July 15.

The officers of the two unions made a joint statement saying the June 15 findings an "insult" to the railroaders, as well as the "most unjust, unfair, inequitable and injurious report" by the emergency board since enactment of the railway labor law.

No Break in Walkout Of Milk Drivers

pect of further delay in final passage of the bill.

Among the differences between the version passed by the house and that being considered by the senate is one involving the length of the draft extension—two years as approved by the house, three years in the senate bill.

Lucas told the senate late yesterday that the present law expires Friday, instead of Saturday as first supposed. He then tried in vain to get unanimous agreement for a final vote early today. There were many objections.

Crossings should be Seen and not Felt

WHEN the sign says "Stop, Look and Listen," the prudent driver does.

But after that what? Must you still move forward at a cautious crawl or pay toll in jar, jitter and jounce?

Not, good sir, when you're at a Buick's wheel.

You step on the throttle, move easily, swiftly forward. Your wheels dance—your tires drum-roll over rail and plank.

But four gentle coil springs, one on each wheel, are working their magic—and you hear rather than feel the rough spot you have crossed.

That, of course, is only one kind of rough going you can meet in your travels. It's only one kind of discomfort your Buick's built to master.

For beside gentle coil springing, every Buick rides on soft, low-pressure tires. Every one is steadied by a rigid torque-tube. Every one boasts a rigid, weaveroof frame—soft, sure shock absorbers—even special engine mountings to minimize vibration.

They can have the special added smoothness of Dynaflo Drive,* cushioning power-thrust in spinning oil.

So rough spots seem to level out at your coming. Boulevards take on a new smoothness. You know what riding comfort is—why the Buick ride is called matchless.

So how about it?

Come climb into a Buick and see for yourself what we mean. You'll get a style-thrill and a power-thrill along with your ride-thrill—and a story on price that eliminates your last excuse for not traveling in the Buick manner!

* Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUTTER and SPECIAL models.
